Read the story below. Draw one part of the story. Write one or two sentences to describe your drawing.

The Tweety Bird
Almar S. Ebrano

Tweety is a yellow bird. She is so sweet and charming. Tweety loves to fly from morning to sundown.

She keeps on practicing her tricks to be the best in the group. Tweety likes flying everywhere.

Thirty advises his friend not to go far because hunters are just around. But, Tweety never listens. One afternoon, Thirty sees a hunter with his slingshot.

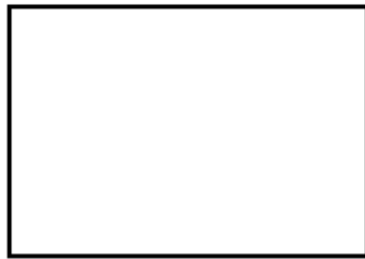

He yells, "Tweety, fly high! Faster!"

Tweety does not listen again.

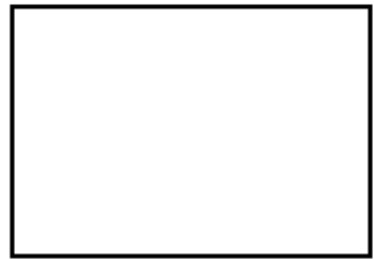

Unfortunately, Tweety lays in the hands of the hunter.

Draw a Sampaguita and a Rose inside their corresponding boxes below.
