4. Answer the questions of Ex. 3 p. 28

1 Read and guess the meanings of the words in bold.

a relative ['relatɪv] I have got many relatives: four uncles and aunts and six cousins. Ben often calls uncle John, his relative from the USA.

an only child [ˌɒnli 'tʃɪld] Sally hasn't got any brothers or sisters – she is an only child in her family.

cuddly ['kʌdli] My cat is so cuddly! I love hugging him very much. Jane has got many soft and cuddly toy animals.

to be a real pain in the neck My little sister always asks me silly questions and often takes my things out of my room – she is a real pain in the neck.

- Are you an only child in the family?
- Have you/Has your friend got a little brother/sister? If yes, is he/she a real pain in the neck?
- In what cities/towns do your relatives live?
- Do you often call your cousins?
- Are there twins in your family/among your relatives?
- Have you got any cuddly pet at home?
