

Name: _____

Date: _____

Cordial

To be cordial means that you are friendly and pleasant! How sweet. You have a kind heart and are very generous to others.

Draw a picture of someone being cordial:

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for a drawing of someone being cordial.

Write a short story about a time that you were cordial:

A series of seven horizontal lines, intended for writing a short story about a time that the student was cordial.