

Course Name: Pinyin 2

Instructor: Li Chen

Brief Course Description:

The second volume of "Zhong Wen" increases the length of the text and the difficulty of the new characters based on the first volume. In addition to completing the language learning content of the textbook, students will consolidate the correct basic strokes and stroke order, continue to lay a good foundation for writing Chinese characters and recognize the radicals of characters. Students are required to recite the entire text fluently and be able to recite several texts. In this school year, more Chinese applications will be added to the classroom based on the previous school year, and the use of English will be reduced.

Learning Objectives:

1. Students should master the new words and characters in the text: be able to read, write and correctly apply the new words and characters
2. Understand the teacher's Mandarin lectures and daily oral conversations.
3. Answer questions in simple Chinese and make sentences using the sentence patterns and vocabulary specified in the text.
4. Be able to read the text fluently and understand the main idea of extracurricular articles of a similar level.
5. Be able to use the words and sentence patterns learned to form words and sentences.
