Frequently Asked Question (FAQs)

Can I join ETC if I am not a Communications major?
Yes! All majors are welcome to join.

How much is ETC's membership fee?
ETC's membership fee is $40, which covers the entire semester.

What are the benefits of becoming an ETC member?
In your ETC membership, this includes access to member exclusive workshops, the Annual Mixer, networking at each panel, and Tours/TV Tapings!

Our panels are still open to all CSUF students!

I can't make it to any of the semester events. How can I still get involved with ETC?
You can participate in our Street Team! Street Team is a way to get more involved in ETC, beyond our regular membership. For no extra charge, you can join Street Team to help plan events, such as panels and collaborate with the Events team and shadow executive board members.

What is Street Team?
Street Team is a way to get more involved in ETC, beyond our regular membership. For no extra charge, you can join Street Team to help plan events such as panels, collaborate with the Events team and shadow executive board members.

What are some events that you will put on this semester?
This semester we have a lot of new and exciting events such as our Networking Workshop and our Sports Entertainment Panel!

When is your first event?
Our first event will be our Fall Kickoff! It'll be on Wednesday, September 14th from 7pm-9pm in the TSU! We'd love for you to join us and learn more about ETC. We'll be having a guest speaker who is also an ETC alumni share all about their club experience and more!

What makes ETC different from BTS?

While we understand that both clubs are similar, ETC is a comm club while BTS is a business club. However, we welcome all majors and are just passionate about the industry in general!

When are your general meetings?

We do not have regular meetings. ETC is what YOU make of it (:
