RE: DISAPPROVAL OF CONTEMPT OF COURT CHARGE AGAINST KIMBERLY WOOLMAN, AS IT'S NOT IN THE PUBLIC'S INTEREST

Email message:
Honorable Judge, Justice, Court,

As a concerned human, attempting to uphold the rights and freedoms of the individuals in my country, I feel it is extremely important for me to convey my disapproval of the charge of Contempt of Court brought against Ms. Kimberly Woolman.

Ms. Woolman is self-representing and missed her sentencing as she had filed an appeal and believed she was not required to attend this appearance. It was her understanding the charges were stayed until after the appeal was completed. This error caused Kimberly to be incarcerated at the court for several hours until she could appear before a judge.

On the day she was detained she was brought before Justice Flewelling of the Provincial Court of British Columbia. She explained the misunderstanding to Judge Flewelling and asked the court for leeway and she also apologized for the misunderstanding. She also addressed that there was no mens rea; she did not intentionally miss her court appearance. Judge Flewelling accepted Ms. Woolman's apology and the reason why she missed her appearance. However, the Crown would not and is pursuing a conviction.

Kimberly accepted her mistake and not only did she apologize to the court, but she also spent several hours in a holding cell at the courthouse. This in my mind is punishment enough for elderly, disabled woman who made an innocent mistake.

I am respectfully asking that the court rescind these charges as they are frivolous and serve no purpose to the greater good of the public and appear vindictive in nature.

Thank you for your consideration,
