General Guidelines

LEVEL 1: CODE GREEN

The following contents are considered “Lvl 1” mild violations of the Community Guidelines:

- + Mild sexually suggestive content, not explicit (bikini/underwear pics are fine unless there's outlined nipple/genitalia)
- + Harassment, public outcry in attempt to target groups/Public call-outs on other users with the intent to shame, criticize, or target them.
- + Pirated Content (streams RWBY illegally), such as piracy website mentions, advertisement, or image tag on screenshots.
- + Self-harm and mild cyberbullying.
- + Selfies posted in irrelevant forms (including blogs, public chats, polls. This doesn't include cosplays, merch, or photos with CRWBY.)
- + Unauthorized advertisements for YouTube videos/channels that aren't relevant to RWBY content.
- + Off-topic content in wikis, posts, chats or quizzes. (A RWBY image doesn't automatically make an off-topic post on topic. Off topic images in the shared folder are instantly disabled.)
- + Non-staff member creation of “new Amino guidelines.” (Preventing community confusion.)

In response to Lvl 1 content, SB member is to notify the content author via comment section. (None of the above content is an immediate disable)

If the user refuses to cooperate or hasn't fixed the issue, SB member is mandated to give the user 10 minutes to remove/modify their content. If the warning comment gets deleted by the uncooperative user, then it's an immediate disable. When the time comes hand over the case to a Curator or Leader for moderation response.

LEVEL 2: CODE YELLOW

The following contents are considered "Lvl 2" moderate violations of the Community Guidelines:

- + Moderate explicit/suggestive content (example: NSFW IMAGES <- Tap for link) (Not an immediate disable)
- + Unauthorized advertisement for other Aminos / Fanpages / Communities (Not an immediate disable)
 - + Pirating (streams RWBY illegally) sites' links. (Immediate disable)
- + Spam in public chats, blogs and comments section. For posts, spam is 5 posts in 30 minutes. (Not an immediate disable)
 - + Threatening and insulting other users. (Depends on severity*)
- + Plagiarized art and/or writing (taking other's work and claim as their own.) (Depends on severity*)
- + Antagonizing and group-rallying for war against an individual/group over regular topics (ex.: Lancaster fans vs. Arkos fans.) (Depends on severity*)
- + Gore, racism & fascism propaganda (ex.: "Fox fans sucks because they're black".) (Depends on severity*)
 - + Other types of controversial topic. (Depends on severity*)

* A commanding officer or leader will decide on appropriate response or the SB chat will vote

In response to Lvl 2 content, SB members follow the appropriate response depending on content. If unsure on response contact a Curator or preferably, a Commander, if available.

For Sexual Content: Disable (if it's blog) OR Hide content (if it's user profile) and send moderation message. Until the user respond and modify their content, keep it disabled/hidden. No exceptions.

For Chat Msg./Comment: Delete the harass/sexual content and send moderation message to the user for warning. If the user refuses to cooperate and fight back, screenshot the scene and deliver to Community Leader or Curator directly, for higher-moderation response.

For Blog/Chatroom: Comment or message the author (or chat owner) along with explanation on why their content violated the [Guidelines]. If the user refuses to cooperate and/or fight back, disable their content immediately and send moderation message as a warning.

In certain (worsening) situations the user continues to fight back, screenshot the scene and deliver to Community Leader or Curator directly, for higher-moderation response

LEVEL 3: CODE RED

The following contents are considered "Lvl 3" extreme violations of the Community Guidelines:

- + Seizure-Inducing gifs on a user's profile or text boxes (Immediate disable)
 - + Harsh/Extreme public outcry/drama in attempt to harass OR raid a Community Staff (Leader, Curator, Group Commands, Executive Advisors, or other staff) (Immediate disable)
 - + Pornographic, Hentai, Lewd materials. (Immediate disable)
 - + Erotic roleplaying (such as having sex in a roleplay chat.) (Immediate disable)
 - + Massive spam / clone accounts in attempt to troll the community. (Depends on severity)
 - + Real bodily-harm / extreme gore / murder photos. (Immediate disable)
 - + Scam or Privacy exploiting in all forms. (Immediate disable)
 - + Hacking and/or DDoS threats to the community. (Immediate disable)
 - + Waging war between individuals/groups of [this] Amino with [that] Amino (referred to the drama war between RWBY Amino and Anonymous Amino.) (Depends on severity)
 - + Repeated cyberbullying, sharing other's personal information and/or real photos. (Immediate disable)
 - + Spoiler content without a warning in the title of blog or chat, spoiler images without 3 preceding warning images, or other improperly warned spoilers. (Immediate disable with opportunity to reenable after its fixed.)
- * A commanding officer or leader will decide on appropriate response or the SB chat will vote

In response to Lvl 3 content, SB member reports content to an available Curator or if needed, Leader.

In certain situations that no Community Leader are available to respond, Curator-leveled Member are authorized to send moderation message to warn the suspect and/or hide their profile. (If a leader is needed for a situation) In other words, SB primary objective is to delay the suspect, screenshot the scenes, disable/delete their content and provide evidence to the Community Leader when they present. (If a leader is needed for a situation)

For outcry/drama or cyberbully cases, send a direct moderation strike to the user. After strike period (24/48 hours of silenced), if the user continues to fight back, issue permanent ban.

For other serious cases, Community Leader reserve the right to issue permanent ban, no exceptions.

In certain extreme serious situations that S-Bloc enforcers and even Leaders are incapable of dealing with, the Community Leader is mandated to provide the evidence and hand over situation to Official Amino Staff.

In many cases, Amino Moderator Tristan are assigned to deal with the problem, with assistance and information provided by RWBY Amino Leader.

Commenting and Disabling Guide

Chat Moderation

In general, all of these types of chats will be under a Code Green. This means we step in, tell the chat what needs to be fixed, and give them ten minutes. Chats whose topic clearly defies the guidelines (as in sexual themes) can often be disabled immediately depending on severity.

-Unrelated Topics

Anything not related to RWBY or our community

Comment, give ten minutes to change, disable if unchanged

You may suggest moving their chat to a private chat group where it would be appropriate.

-Truth or Dare/Spin-the-Bottle Chats

Comment, give ten minutes to change, disable if unchanged

-Themeless Chats

Chats without a topic or theme (aka. "Whatever/Bored" chats)

Comment, give ten minutes to change, disable if unchanged

You may suggest moving their chat to a private chat group where it would be appropriate.

-1x1 Searching

Searches for 1x1 partners in a blog post are acceptable

Ask the user to move their content into a blog post.

Give them ten minutes to delete the chat.

-Begging For Art

Offering art to people is allowed, but one can not make a chat just to ask for it.

Ask the user to move their content into a blog post.

Give them ten minutes to delete the chat.

-Meme Chats

A chat that has the only purpose of memes is not allowed as it can easily get off topic. But memes are allowed to be shared in chats.

Ask the user to change the purpose of the chat or to delete the chat.

Give them 10 minutes to fix or delete their chat.
