Response

I'll be addressing things in the way it's listed in the document, then give some things I'd like to add. This is written off of memory, as I can't go back into the servers, because I was banned.

They APOLOGIZED once and it wasn't even for making me want to kill my self

They bullied me so much I couldn't get out of bed some days. I still don't even feel like eating

I have told them to leave me alone because they made a rule something like "be funny (this applies to apogus)

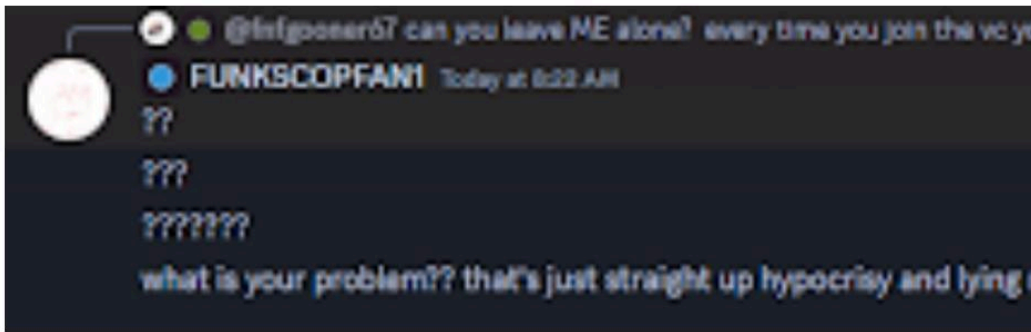

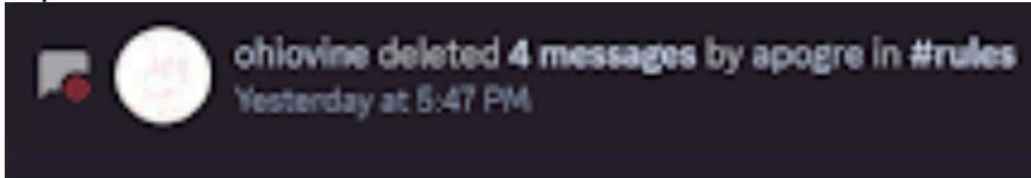

Starting off with this, I didn't apologize just once, I apologized many times, I also tried to talk about it with you in the other server and you kept insisting on me not apologizing when I very much was. I also did not bully you. Here is a list of things that I (can remember) calling you.

1. A ginger, (as a light-hearted joke, due to your persona's hair being orange)
2. A nerd
3. A bitch, (yet again, a clear joke at the time)

There might be some things I forgot to add here, but I never said anything drastic or purposely rude.

I made that rule because you thought it would be funny to send me tell me to kill myself and how to do so in many ways, for almost a week. This behavior only stopped because you deleted the entire server.

But they deleted my messages and responded with “??” here is proof

This is just a lie, you can see that I deleted messages in #rules, not the place that that conversation took place in. Also, you failed to show the full screenshot, and how I was talking about you kicking me from the voice-chat way more than I did to you.

The reason I deleted the messages were because they weren't rules.

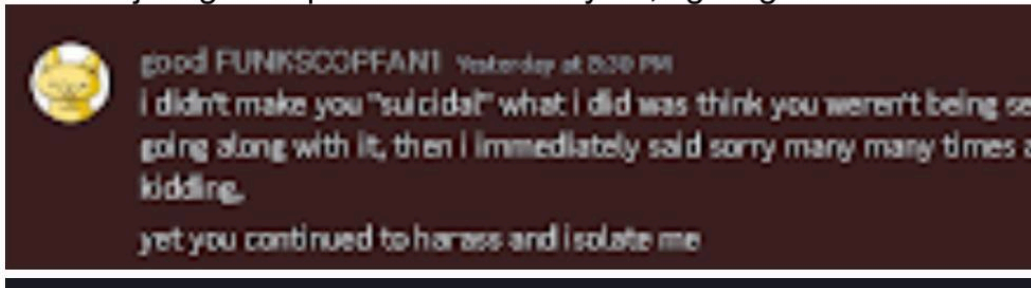

They also call me a hypocrite?

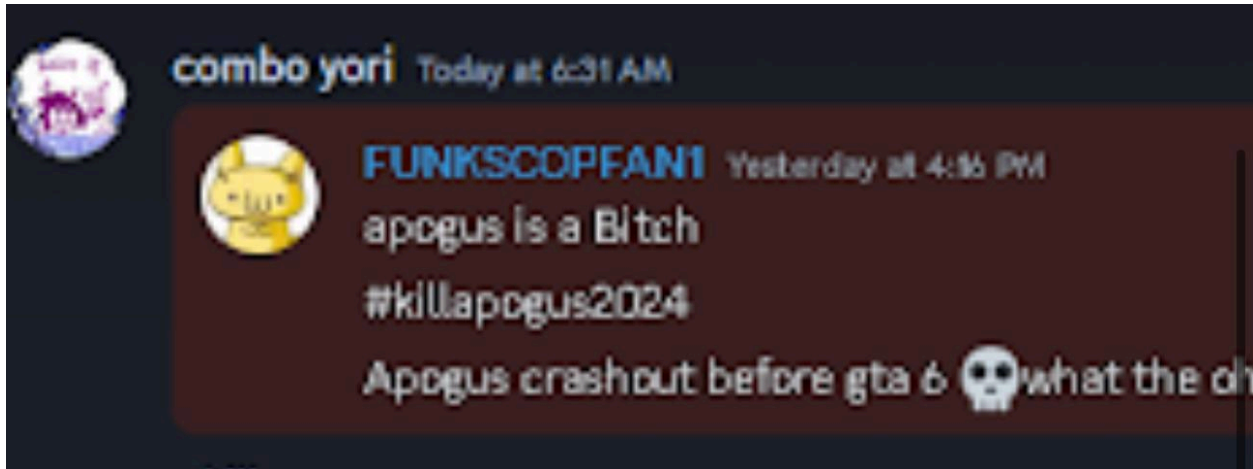

They didn't JUST call me a ginger. They made fun of everything I did. Calling me stupid kicking me from vc at random

You quite literally are a hypocrite. You kicked me from the voice call so many times that I went to another one and cried while listening to music. I literally told you this too, yet you decided to keep it in the document. Also, calling you stupid as a joke is not a worthy reason for a whole call-out on me.

Also i'm just gonna provide evidence yori';s giving me here

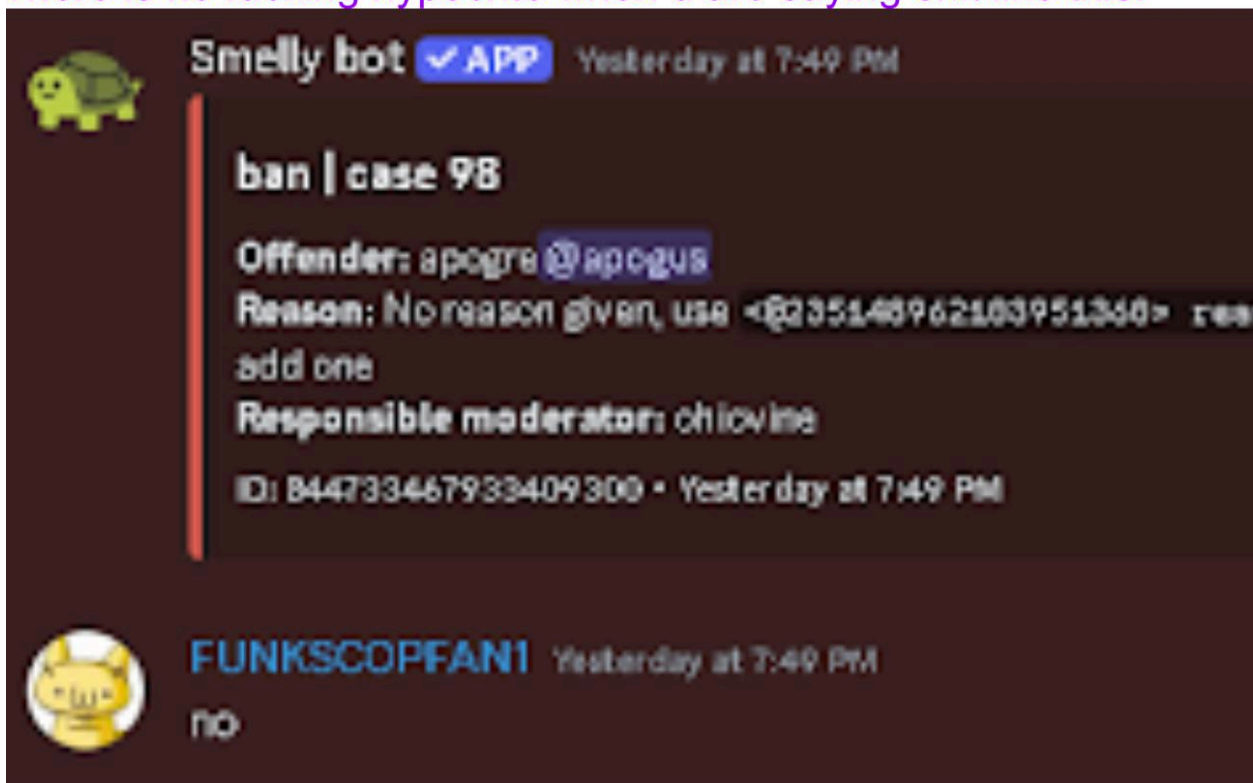

(??) how is this me attacking you?? this is me responding to you harassing me then saying i made you suicidal

this is just an obvious joke

There is no fucking hypocrite when u are saying shit like this.

How is this hypocritical? I banned you because you deleted the entire server??

Also they're trying to turn people against me which is just fucking stupid

They generally think they're in the right and they're doing THAT?

I think you could get this but they're a massive liar with a massive ego

Another lie, and this has no proof either. This also devolves to just name-calling for the sake of it. I don't even have a massive ego?

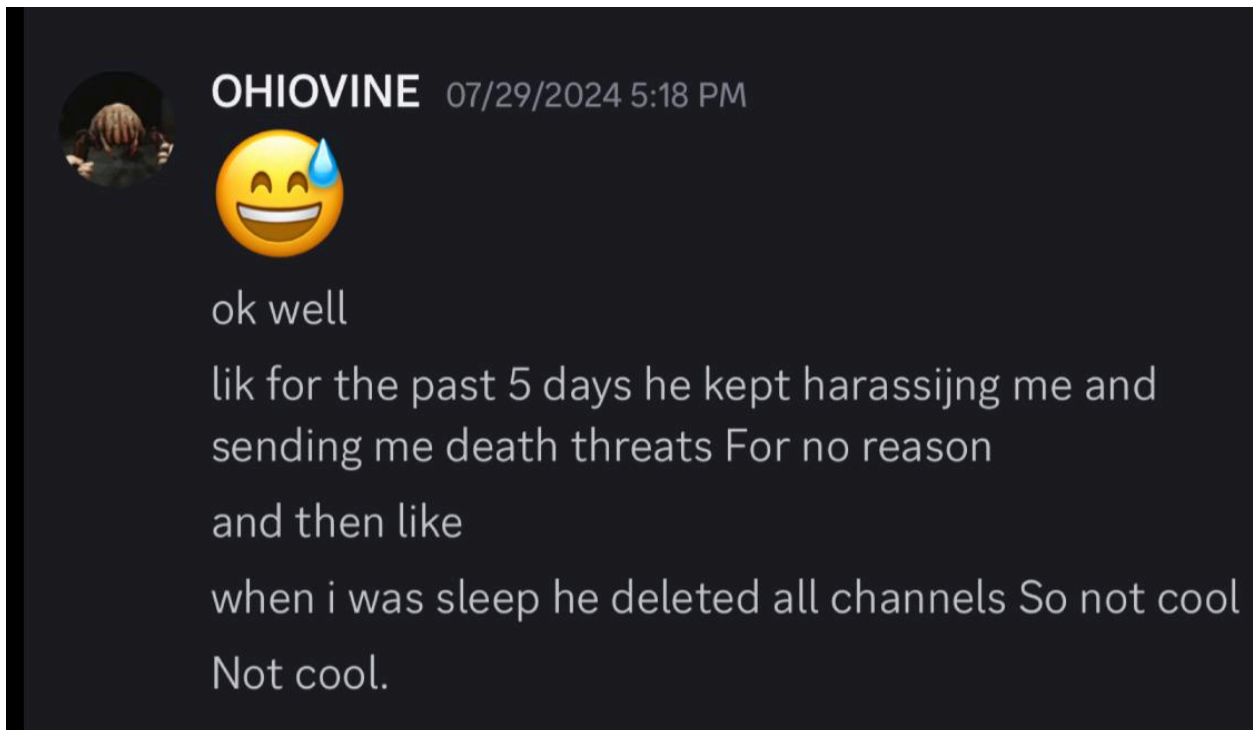

Not really evidence but I dont think thats how you start a conversation about being a actual bully then trying to frame yourself as the victim...

I was NOT framing myself as the victim here, nor was I being a bully for telling someone to go fuck themselves after they destroyed my entire friend group's server and banned me from it.

Adding on

Apogus harassed me for almost an entire week, without giving me a clear reason why, asidw from “You made me suicidal.”

They failed to bring this up in the document, though. They also didn't remark on how they deleted the entire server. This is all I have to say, as it's not like I'm trying to make a call-out on Apogus. I'm only adding onto the information I already gave in my response. That'll be all. If I remember anything, or feel like there's anything that I need to add, I'll update this document.
