

Privacy Policy

Introduction

At Animal Match Mania ("we", "us", or "our"), your privacy is a top priority, and we take the security of your data extremely seriously. This Privacy Policy ("Policy") demonstrates our dedication to safeguarding your privacy and details the following:

What information is gathered when you use the Animal Match Mania App ("Application") and its associated services ("Services");

How this information is utilized, stored, and shared;

Your rights in relation to this information.

Scope of Data Collection

When you engage with our Application and Services, we may collect different kinds of personal data. This encompasses (but is not limited to):

Automatically gathered data: This includes system information, patterns of user behavior within the app, data related to advertising, and specific details about your device;

Voluntarily provided information: You may choose to share certain details (such as payout account details, preferences for communication) to assist us in delivering a better user experience.

Purposes of Data Use

The personal data we collect is utilized to enhance your user experience and make your interactions with Animal Match Mania more relevant to your needs. Specific uses are as follows:

Sending personalized advertisements that match your interests;

Stopping fraudulent activities to protect both users and our services;

Refining our Services by using your feedback;

Improving overall user engagement metrics to optimize the way you interact with our platform.

Information Sharing

To support the delivery and enhancement of our Services, we may share your personal data with reliable third-party service providers. This group includes (but is not limited to):

Companies that process payments;

Professionals specializing in fraud prevention;

Advertising partners;

Related businesses and organizations;

Other essential service providers, as needed to keep our operations running smoothly.

Measures to Safeguard Data

Animal Match Mania puts in place industry-standard data protection measures to ensure the security of your personal information. These measures consist of:

Secure protocols for data transmission;

Strict protective measures to stop unauthorized access to or use of personal data;

Adherence to strict laws and regulations that govern the access and use of data.

Protecting the Privacy of Minors

The Application and Services are not created for, nor aimed at, individuals under 18 years of age. If we find that we have accidentally collected data from a minor, we will follow all applicable laws and regulations to delete such data appropriately.

Adjustments to the Policy

We reserve the right to make changes or updates to this Policy at our own judgment. Any modifications will be clearly displayed on this page. Therefore, we suggest that you check this page on a regular basis to stay up-to-date with any changes to our privacy practices.
