

1. According to the US Government, why were the Natives removed from their land?
2. In retrospect, why were the Natives removed from their land?
3. How could the Creeks be seen as an example as of US policy toward Native tribes?
4. Who was Tecumseh and why was he important in US-Native relations?
5. Who was Lewis Cass and how could he be used to illustrate US attitudes toward the Natives?
6. How did Jackson justify taking the Creek land after Horseshoe Bend?
7. Why was the Creek treaty of 1814 significant in US-Native relations?
8. How did slavery play a role in US-Seminole relations?
9. How did the US use the general Native ignorance of US law to their advantage?
10. How did John Ross and the Cherokee try to use the US Constitution? How did that work for the Cherokee?
11. Why is Andrew Jackson's personal history important in understanding US-Native relations during his presidency?
12. What is land speculation and how did Jackson fare in it?
13. How did Jackson view the Natives?
14. How did Jackson view Native history with the US and how it would play out?
15. How was the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek particularly damaging to the Choctaw?
16. What was the ruling in Worcester v Georgia and how was it significant?
17. Why were the Natives ultimately unsuccessful in resisting migration?
18. Why were so many of the promises made to the different Native tribes ultimately not kept?
19. How do the accounts in Takaki and Zinn compare to KCB?