Introduction (Main Heading; Roboto, Font Size 14, Bold, Capitalise Each Word, Justified, colour (R 0, G 68, B 148))

Basic text (Roboto, font size 12, single-spaced, justified) Space line (one) should be inserted between headings and the text.

The paper should follow the "IMRaD" format, which refers to a paper structured by four main sections: Introduction, Methods, Results, and Discussion. This is not a strict rule for titles and applies if reasonable. All synonyms and derivatives of these terms and additional theme-specific titles are allowed.

Use a single line of space (one) between paragraphs.

Subtitle(s) (Second Level Heading; Roboto, Font Size 12, Italics, Bold, Capitalise Each Word, Justified, Colour (R 0, G 68, B 148))

Space lines (two) should be inserted between the text and the new heading. This refers to all headings.

References are cited in the text as follows (APA style, 7th edition – see more at link):

Tables, figures and/or graphs should be numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals and inserted in the text according to the example below.

Tables should have all single lines. If the table(s) span two or more pages, please repeat the heading row of the table(s). Capitalize each word in the title.

Nonfinancial KPIs	Company A index 2023/2022	Company B index 2023/2022
Waste production	-0,15	0,08
Recycling	0,10	0,12

Language and Proofreading Guidelines

1. Language Quality All submissions must be written in high-quality academic English (British) consistently applied throughout the document. The text should be clear, concise, and free of grammatical, spelling, and punctuation errors.

2. Mandatory Proofreading Authors are responsible for the linguistic accuracy of their manuscripts. It is required that all abstracts and final papers undergo proofreading either by authors themselves, a professional proof-reader or by a native English speaker prior to submission.

3. Clarity and Academic Tone
Please ensure that:

- Technical terms are used correctly and consistently.
- Acronyms are defined upon their first mention in the text and used consistently afterwards.
- The academic tone is formal and objective, avoiding colloquialisms or overly complex sentence structures that may obscure the research findings.

4. Rejection Policy
