

I was swimming in the ocean	when I was attacked by a shark.
I was writing a story	when my pencil broke.
I was drinking milk	when my friend made me laugh, and the milk came out my nose.
I was eating spaghetti	when I spilled tomato sauce on my shirt.
I was talking to my friend	when the teacher told me to be quiet.
I was sleeping peacefully	when my brother woke me up.
I was washing my face	when I got soap in my eyes.
I was watching my favourite TV program	when the television broke.
I was taking a shower	when the water suddenly stopped.
I was riding my bicycle	when the wheels suddenly fell off.
I was fighting a crocodile	when it bit my arm.
