

UniqueID: 202103271595

Author: Elizabeth Laird

Title: When the world began: Stories collected in Ethiopia

Published: 2000

Internet Archive: Available for borrowing.

The Day the Sky Fell. Sheep and Goat, frustrated about food and water, run away from farm. Lion is going to attack them, but sheep says world is ending, the sky is falling: run away! Then a Leopard. Then a Hyena. They came to the beautiful spring and green grass. They hide in a tree, and the Hyena, Leopard, and Lion come there and complain loudly. The Sheep needs to pee! Sheep tried to stay till but she wiggled, and fell on them. The animals screamed that the sky really was falling and ran off. Happily ever after.