

Lecture Breakdown Guide

Below is a general example of how to think through planning out your lecture content in the studio. Notice that larger lecture topics delivered in one or two on-campus class sessions should be divided into multiple, shorter recordings that cover one smaller topic in the larger discussion.

On-Campus Lectures

1. On-Campus Lecture 1: Regular and Separate Baptists (2 hours)
2. On-Campus Lecture 2: The Triennial Convention (30 minutes)
3. On-Campus Lecture 3: The Anti-Missions Movement (1 hour)
4. On-Campus Lecture 4: Campbellism (40 minutes)

Equivalent Recorded Lectures of Online Class

1. Who Were Regular Baptists? (10 minutes)
 2. Six Characteristics of Regular Baptists (15 minutes)
 3. Who Were Separate Baptists? (10 minutes)
 4. Five Characteristics of Separate Baptists (20 minutes)
 5. Where Do Southern Baptists Come From? (15 minutes)
 6. The Formation of the Triennial Convention (15 minutes)
 7. Two Competing Visions for the Triennial Convention (20 minutes)
 8. Introduction to the Anti-Missions Movement (10 minutes)
 9. The Leaders of the Anti-Missions Movement (15 minutes)
 10. Key Objections of the Anti-Missions Movement (15 minutes)
 11. Who is Alexander Campbell? (15 minutes)
 12. Six Elements of Campbell's Thought (25 minutes)
-
- Divided from On-Campus Lecture 1
- On-Campus Lecture 2
- On-Campus Lecture 3
- On-Campus Lecture 4