

Doubting God:
Where are You God?
November 26, 2023

"...My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" – Matthew 27:46

Your _____ do not _____ your faith.

Even Jesus experienced _____ things.

Forsaken = _____, _____, _____, _____

3 responses to feeling abandoned by God:

1. Remind yourself that God _____ you and is _____ you.

- Hebrews 13:5

- Matthew 28:20

- Hebrews 4: 15-16

- 1 Corinthians 13:12

Because God is _____ you, you are _____ alone.

God is with you, take your hard _____ to God.

Go to the throne of grace _____!

Whatever season you are in is _____ of your story, not the _____ story.

2. Turn '_____, God,' into, '_____, God.'

- Hebrews 5:8

- 2 Corinthians 12:7

- Hebrews 12:2

Ask God, _____ do you want to teach me?

Paul asked God _____ times to remove the thorn

Ask God, _____ do you want to do through me?

Jesus _____ the pain of the cross because He was focused on the _____.

3. When you can't _____ God's hand, _____ God's heart
- Luke 23:46

Jesus went from, 'My God, My God why have you forsaken me?' to 'Into your hands I commit my spirit.'

_____ have you forsaken me? – relatable?

Some of God's promises:

- 2 Corinthians 1:20

- Hebrews 13:5

- Romans 8:28

- Ephesians 3:20

- Philippians 4:19

- Lamentations 3:22-23

Reflect on these questions this week:

- What is your first reaction when you can't 'see' God in times of trial?

- What is the difference between asking, 'why, God,' and 'what, God?'

- How has Jesus dying on the cross helped you realize that God does not abandon His own in times of trial?

- How has this message series helped you in times where you have doubts about your faith?
