

String Fest Reflection Letter

CONGRATULATIONS on a full day of rehearsing and performing! You have a lot to be proud of! The middle and high school orchestra members that you performed with would love to hear your thoughts about the day. Please choose some of the following questions to respond to as you write a letter to an older orchestra member, and I will make sure your letter gets to them!

GRADING:

4 = Includes responses to four or more of the prompts; complete sentences, thorough responses

3 = Includes responses to three of the prompts; complete sentences

2 = Includes responses to two of the prompts or includes incomplete sentences or thoughts

PROMPTS:

- What was it like playing in an orchestra with so many people? How did it compare to playing in full orchestra?
- What was your favorite part about the day?
- If there was a worst part, what was it?
- What was your favorite piece of music that we performed and why?
- What was your favorite piece to listen to?
- What was something musical that you learned at String Fest?
- What is a question you have about orchestra in middle or high school?
