

HIGH CLIFFS STUDIOS PRESENTS:

NIGHT OP PRIDE

Directed By El Quinzel

PROLOGUE:

In a great Kingdom past the mountains, all the animals lived in harmony, ruled by the regal and well respected King and Queen. However, in this time there were still animals that wanted harm to come to the tree. So the King and Queen at the time recruited a streak of Tigers to watch over the tree during the night, while the rest of the animals slept. After moons and moons of this, the Tigers felt unappreciated by the animals of the kingdom. With the amount of effort and dedication that they put in for protection, the rest of the animals simply slept away like ingrates. So night after night the Tigers assembled, creating a dark plot to dethrone the King and Queen and rule over the Tree of Life. When the battle came, the Tigers fought with bravery and strength. But they had not realized the intensity and courage of their opponents, and so they lost the bloody battle. From that point onward, Tigers were looked down upon and were no longer granted to come back to the Tree of Life.
