

Law 12 Historical Roots of law

Applying your new knowledge of the devices used by political /editorial cartoonists – analyze the issues presented in the chapter so far and include all of the examples provided.

Partner Activity.

Political Cartoon
Name:
Research an issue
Task: Create a 2 legal cartoons reflecting on any system of laws discussed in this chapter. Include the following
Use of essential devices			Comments
Caricature Caricature is a form of visual satire and is nearly always negative. Focus on a an individual's unique physical characteristics and exaggerate or distort them!	/2
Analogy/Irony Analogy draws on a rich pool of historical, literary, and cultural references to create a fantasy setting or situation which relates in some way to reality. The similarity forces the viewer to think about the situation in a new way	/2
Words- Cartoons usually have titles or captions, and sometimes they have name tags, balloon comments or dialogue.	/2
Symbolism	/1
Labelling	/1
Shading	optional
Creativity	/5
What issue is this political cartoon addressing?	Provide an explanation as to how you used the different techniques
	/5
on time	/5
Comments Total	23		