This audio is extremely lethal and dangerous. Yes, the fact that such a audio is given out to the public for free alone is absurd. This is not lethal for the user but for the people who're gonna be victim to the listener, so be careful when you use this. We're NOT responsible for any misuse of this audio. This is the v2 of my subliminal - BLOOD, which was centered around awakening of the sinister and predatory unconscious self. Since some of y'all were confused on the idea of predator-prey dynamic, to make it clear we're either a predator or a prey. Nothing in between, to understand this better look at your own self. Porn, unhealthy e@ting habits, a person stealing your opportunity (job, dating partner, etc), believe it or not you're always living in this dynamic and are probably prey to something without realising, to pull yourselves out of this is to simply understand that your ordinary life is a reflection of nature and start living by the laws of it, which is EVOLUTION, kill or be killed. This audio is based on Alucard from Hellsing Ultimate whose a anti-hero vampire who hunts other vampires. He's extremely sadistic and ruthless w/ how he eliminates his enemies.

WHAMPYRISM

Vampyrism/Whampyrism is a very complex topic in general. From the folklores and media it emphasises on creatures who consume human blood meanwhile in surface occult it's the idea of feeding on your victim's energy through psychic mediums like visualising "tendrils" but vampyrism extends way more than that. The reason we exist is to evolve into something greater and for that the most fundamental thing required is energy. The food, knowledge, natural resources, etc. everything you consume is energy and the more you consume the more you evolve. Ever notice how some people completely rule a social scenario, gathering all the attention from everyone around while some can't even keep their frame or get their voice heard? And some people getting drained when they're in relationships w/ narcissists? It's all forms of vampyrism. BECOME A EXTREMELY POWERFUL ENERGY VAMPIRE. you'll drain the very existence itself. Drain energy from desired people, objects, astrological bodies, etc. extremely powerful sexual vampyrism, again this section can be lethal for your partners so be careful and make sure to set a proper intent before engaging in sex. Just like alucard's immortality and absurd regeneration capabilities, all the energies you drain and consume are transmuted to heal you in every way and also aid in every other aspect of your life. YOUR OWN ENERGY WILL BE PROTECTED FROM OTHER PSYCHIC VAMPIRES. Contains parts of healing and regeneration from SANA (this does NOT replace SANA as that audio is way more focused on healing). Have endless reserves of life force/ojas/chi/prana/vril.

ALGOL

ALGOL KEYWORDS — don't worry. This won't be a copy and paste of Vk Jehannums Algol post, I've seen just about every "occultist" submaker post that and ditch posting their own Algol notes. There will be none of that here, we value and embody aristocracy so there won't be any recycled content. Some of us have high enough IQ to look beyond some libcuck satanists blog.

STAR; Algol, also known as the "Demon Star". Located in the constellation "Perseus".

Ptolemy (see Tetrabiblos) refers to this star as "The Gorgon of Perseus", giving it the keyword "Death", via decapitation specifically. This mirrors Perseus' victory over Medusa, the snake haired Gorgon. He cuts off her head, then proceeds to use it as a weapon. This interesting star has lots of keywords, besides death and decapitation. I will go into etymology, history and planetary alchemy of this star to find out more keywords and explain why they apply. If you don't care about the process of how a keyword came to be associated with the star, you can scroll a bit further because I have all of them compiled.

Let's start with the etymology of Gorgon. Perseus used Medusa's head as a weapon for a reason, the head of the Gorgon. The etymology itself links to several words such as; "the grim ones" "terrible, fierce, grim", "dreadful" but if you further back and look at the Sanskrit word garǧ, which is defined as a guttural sound, you get the keywords "growling" and "the growling of a beast". Does this make Medusa a numinous, primal and esoteric weapon? After all, Perseus holds a sword in one hand and Medusa's severed head in the other. Ni-Se axis, for those who like Jungian psychology. I think this severed head represents vampyrism for one more reason. In East Asian mythologies, there are female figures whose heads detach from them and they feed on victims at night. Look up “penanggalan”, that is one example. Either way, this is where the vampirism keyword for this star comes from. The star itself is not located in Medusa’s eye but in her head. I believe this makes her a psycho-spiritual weapon.

I have more keywords for this star, I will spare you every long paragraph I have for how I came to decide each keyword. I showed you the vampyrism one, you know the behind the scenes now (watered down nonetheless) so you know how the process works if you wanted to check yourself. Now, here is the list of keywords.

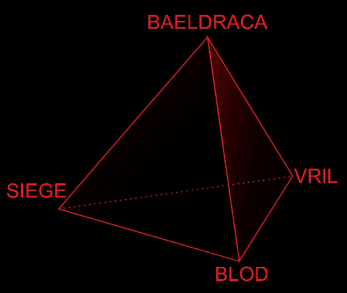

— Blistering radiation, howling winds, destructive vectors, sharp winds, soul shattering glare, predatory gaze, shockwaves, vampyrism, explosive violence, beheading, possession, madness, mania, demonic, EVIL, astral travel, psychological warfare, spiritual warfare, psychological SIEGE, bloodthirst, primal predator, having the upper hand, dark magick, dark psychology, reverse engineering, liminality, psychological reprogramming, fear, terror, domination, blood feeding, dark feminine as a weapon, Lilithian qualities, nocturnal creature, guaranteed win, guaranteed success, liminal weapons etc.

BOUNTY HUNTER OF SATAN

Complete dark tetradism. Hunter mindset and neurology. Embody the darkest aspects of your psyche (all the bottled up emotions and you must be ready for it!), enhanced Psychopathy, Narcissism and Machiavellianism. All these traits are enhanced in a way you’re still extremely high functioning. Similar to Alucard’s personality be extremely sadistic, calculative, dominant, ruthless, bloodthirsty and masochistic, yes masochism can be used as a fuel to evolution instead of seeing problems as a burden or obstacle, you can find ecstasy in the fact that it makes you stronger. In this way, masochism becomes a catalyst to spiritual apotheosis. Have an extremely animalistic yet aristocratic and elite personality similar to that of alucard. Vampire biology, physiology, psychology and necessary genetic modifications (if required).

THE BAELDRACCIAN TRIAD

What you see in the image below is called “The Baeldraccian Triad”, this is our core model, it's what the entire SIEGEKRAFT praxis and literature is eventually based upon. Each corner means something, and has its own corresponding keywords. You can see summaries down below.

BLOD: Self Opfer, Blood Opfer, Sacrifice, The Predator Archetype, Wild Hunt, ID (Freud), Animus (Jung) , Primal Self, der Wille zur Macht, Primary Function is Se (Extroverted Sensing) etc.

VRIL: Wyrd, Nature, Primal Forces, Primary Function is Ni (introverted intuition), Anima (Jung) , Rounwytha, Philosophy, History, Aristocracy, Art, Music etc.

SIEGE: Insight Roles, Psycho-Politics, Military, Cyber Operations, Sinister Strategy, Ideologies, Assigned Cognitive Functions May Vary, National Socialism, SVART SOL etc.

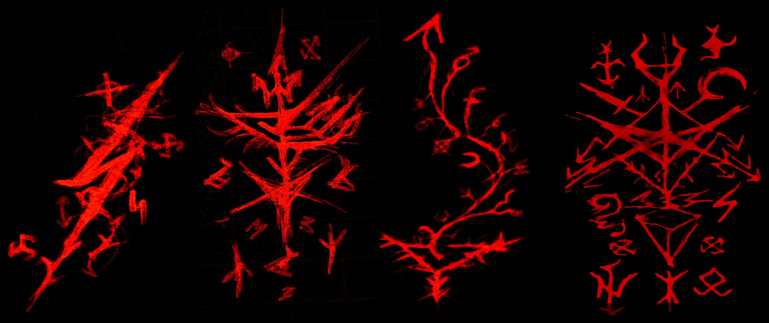

We believe that each corner of the triangle is key in order to make the BAELDRACA emerge, so to speak. You can see it as awakening your BAELDRACA. For those not familiar with the O9A, BAELDRACA is our interpretation of what some practitioners call a “higher self”. It is not similar when it comes to details, it is absolutely not the same thing. I will spare what you’d perceive as a headache, and simplify what the baeldraca is. In order to do that, I will start with what it is NOT. It is not like a Holy Guardian Angel, there are no hierarchies and it is not a fleshed out spirit. Forget everything you know about the higher self from pathetic white lodge sources. It is none of that. You can see in our triad what it is, and what to do in order to awaken yours. It is the product of Pathei-Mathos actualised. It is what emerges when you engage with each corner in the triangle, in a perfect balance. The product is non-dualistic godhood, I say this because unlike other systems, it doesn’t eliminate aspects of “self”, it goes beyond what you can even perceive yourself to be but without any elimination and dualism. For example, you are perceiving yourself as your conscious identity right? Maybe you’ve integrated your subconscious aspects as well, that’s a good start. BAELDRACA goes beyond that, it is “self” and also what you perceive to be the exact opposite, at the same time. Imagine this, you’re timeless, limitless and everywhere at once. Think about something you perceive outside yourself, like a moth you'd see outside. It is not separate from you, when the baeldraca is awakened you get to a point where this becomes natural. It is just how you see the world and "yourself", it will be what feels most logical and right. It will be as if curtains have lifted, and that is the only way to see life. This text doesn't do it justice, but look at the triad. You will see, maybe you can figure out why SIEGE-BLOD-VRIL together empower and awaken a baeldraca.

I don't like to quote pop culture but I think this will make it easier for you to understand it. That one scene from the matrix, where they say something along the lines of "you don't bend the spoon, you are the spoon".

Don't try to move the world, you are the world. You are the moth, the moth is you. When you work properly with each corner in the triangle, this comes naturally. That is the entire benefit here, you will naturally work with each corner and be in tune with it and its keywords.

Down below, we have some sigils. You can use these for the Baeldraccian Traid. Starting from left to right we have; Siege, Blod, Vril and Baeldraca. They will aid with stronger results, do not be shy of using them. You can gaze at them while using the audio, a few minutes or 30 seconds will be enough. You can also use them in your own meditations and spellwork. I recommend these if the description of the BAELDRACA didn't make sense, sigils speak to the soul and subconscious. They evoke feelings and states of consciousness, a deep understanding which language sometimes cannot provide.

BIRD OF HERMES

Have a aristocratic, Victorian vampire aesthetic, manifest gothic-esque clothes, manifest elite mannerism and etiquettes. Your gaze, presence and voice is charged w/ massive amounts of sexual energy. Others see you as extremely noble and royal. Be the absolute embodiment of strength and anarchy. The most effective way to attract people is to vamp them, this is why it's so hard to break ties w/ a draining narcissistic partner. This'll make sure everyone you vamp stays and feels forever inferior to you. Have affinity to vampire and concubi (incubus/succubus) spirits. Astrology includes placements from Saturn, Pluto, Venus and Mars.
