

The 2023 timeline & 2024

Hello, before reading this I have some disclaimers please excuse mistakes, errors, and if a few things missing, this is made mainly by one person with the help of Reddit user u/itsathrowawaydontask (On the 2023 part)

Legal disclaimer

Everything I will detail below is alleged, unless it has been proven as fact in court of law.

To Reddit and all other readers:

If something is missing please comment below on the Reddit post linking to this doc on so I can update the document.

This is a collection of all “memorable” or concerning things, as well as inappropriate behavior or encouraging parasocial relationships dissociAID legal name Chloe Wilkinson has displayed in the year 2023.

Feel free to save and download this, repost it, or share it. No credit needed. Steal it and say you made it I really don't care.

General trigger warning for any topic that DissociaDID has mentioned.

Thank you.

JANUARY

December 31/January 1st 2023 depending on your time zone: Chloe talks about remember she has BPD but forgot due to amnesia and recall their ex partner system (team piñata) had BPD, they recall their past partner in a very kind and nostalgic tone of voice despite team piñata producing Child porn aka CSEM drawings and posting it online to fetish sites.

Reddit: <https://www.reddit.com/r/DissociaDID/s/02kAiXTg9s>

Jan 3rd: complains it's hard not to flirt with fans writing “trying to be a respectable person and not flirt with everyone who leaves flirtatious comments in our comment section 😊 - Kya” in reply to a comment saying “bark” over 10x meaning “you make me so horny I want to bark like a dog.” This is often associated with catcalling but sometimes with BDSM pet play which Chloe has been open about participating in BDSM, in the past.

Remy the doctor who diagnosed chloe Wilkinson comes into the r/dissociadid subreddit to claim he can diagnosis people despite legally not being allowed to do so

"Clarification about Newhouse can diagnose a dissociative disorder

To clarify, in the UK any clinician trained in the use of the SCID D can diagnose. In this country very few psychiatrists are familiar let alone accept Dissociative Disorders even though they have been in both psychiatric manuals for over 30 years. Most of the training to psychologists and other clinicians in the use of the SCID D has been undertaken by The Pottergate Centre. Marlene Steinberg (the originator the SCID D) has endorsed both Mike Lloyd from CTads and Remy Aquarone from The Pottergate Centre to offer training in the new SCID that can diagnose under both DSM5 and now ICD11."

"APOLOGIES: Title should say ' Clarification about who can diagnose a dissociative disorder'"

Comment reply to a mod asking him to verify himself

We are okay!

Hey everyone, we just wanted to give you all an update on where we are and what's going on. First of all, we are okay! As most of you will know we are currently processing a crime we experienced. The individual responsible continues to remain in jail without bail at this time. He has not been released since his arrest at the start of August. The trial is set for next year and we have been working with the police and CPS (Crown Prosecution Service) while we have been away from the internet.

So why did we stop posting?

Unfortunately due to the nature of the trauma, being seen online, especially our face, has become a trigger due to the feeling of being watched, stalked, lusted after and/or obsessed over by unknown people. This has compounded issues that already impacted us after Sergio Costa, other traumas in 2020, and previous childhood traumas some of you may be aware of. We tried to combat it by making TikToks to keep at least one social media active, but even that hit a breaking point and we couldn't even look at notifications or numbers without panicking and PTSD symptoms resurfacing. We also started having seizures again after the crime and were advised by our doctor to stop working until being online is less triggering, leaving us unable to work.

HOWEVER, we have been working hard at overcoming this - those of you who've followed us for some time will know that are resilient, we ALWAYS come back and nothing will keep us down for good. We will be coming back to DissociaDID!

Thank you so much for being patient with us and sending us love and support while we work on our health. We love you!"

New community post on YouTube

Reddit post: <https://www.reddit.com/r/DissociaDID/s/Oe66YduZ1Q>

" Some quick updates:

We are still unable to make content or posts due to PTSD related seizures, for which we are obtaining medical care. However, we felt it was important to try to cover a few things. First, we want to wish everyone who celebrates the holidays around this time of year a safe and happy holiday. It's a difficult time for many trauma survivors, and we want you to know that we are thinking of you and rooting for you, even if interacting with you isn't possible for us right now. We want to encourage you to face the new year with strength and hope, and we wish you the best start to 2024.

TW: Pet de*th Many of you already know our beloved guinea pig Coffee passed away in August. His brother, Muffin, has now joined him on the other side. We hope they will now be reunited in a better place with lots of hay, veggies, fresh grass, and sunshine.

Tw: Gaza g*nocide

Finally, and most importantly, FREE PALESTINE. While we are not physically well enough to create content online, we are not ignorant to the genocide happening before our eyes. We've been doing what we can in our personal life and encourage those who can to do the same. This can include things like raising awareness by reposting and sharing content, donating to humanitarian aid if you have the extra funds to spare, exposing propaganda, boycotting, and writing to your governments to pressure them to listen to the worldwide protests and the public outcry over this grotesque violation of human rights and the ethnic cleansing of the Palestinian people.

The world and government officials must take action to enforce a permanent ceasefire and to end the horrific war crimes that continue to occur daily in Gaza and the West Bank.

We bear witness and commend the bravery of journalists like Motaz, Bisan, Wael, and Lama Jamous, who is just 9 years old. They are working daily to document the atrocities that are happening in Palestine, at great personal risk to themselves and their families. The world owes it to every innocent life lost to continue to act in whatever way we can until a permanent cease fire happens.

We will see you soon, when our health allows us to safely create content again. We look forward to a better and brighter 2024 for everyone.

All our love, DissociaDID”
