2. Ideas for Professor Announcements

- Rational for the current or next topic
- Personal Story/Illustration related to the current or next topic
- Pre-course announcement video inviting students to acquire textbooks and start the class
- Recognition of students' personal introductions in the Intro Discussion Board.
- Reason for the Major Course Assignment
- Recap announcement of recent LiveSync(s)
- Further Studies Announcement

3. Online Teaching Assistant Expectations

- OTA will provide announcements related to major assignments
- Key Figures Biography assignment requires careful reading and feedback from the OTA
- OTA will communicate with me during week 3 about what students are doing for the case study project so that I can send an announcement.
- The book summary and the mission's website assignments are simple completion assignments, and the OTA will not need to provide feedback.
