Meet Your Host

TorahCents

Hi! I'm Torah!

I'm an educated, career driven and unchurched woman of faith who began posting my “radical” unorthodox dating beliefs and practices on Youtube over a decade ago... when I was a young single mother right out of grad school (you can check out one of them here).

Even after the online naysayers told me that being a single mother with the dating practices I had was going to keep me single...I was successfully married within 2 years of my first published youtube video.

A few years into marriage, I continued to post videos that highlighted my views on modern dating and my opinion on “best practices” for women of faith...

...and I found myself happily answering the same dating questions over and over to women just like me: Smart, successful women of faith who desired thriving love lives that matched the level of success they had in every other area of their lives.

Finally, in 2019 I decided I would take everything I knew about creating a delicious dating life (filled with fine ass quality men to choose from) and teach it in a structured 12-week container as a private mentorship program (Curved 2 Cuffed).

Since then I've helped thousands of women confidently date for the relationships they desired....

and have been fully launched on a mission to help unchurched women of faith create real options in men and choose themselves first (instead of waiting for a man to choose them).

I call these women The Lovergirls 😊

Dating can be magical: fun, fruitful and forward-moving towards the commitment you desire.

You deserve to be well-educated, well-paid AND well-loved.

This is your year to date deliciously, create connections with quality men and design a love life that leads to your life partner.

Total Investment:

$2,000 - paid in full

(payment plans are available)

*please note that transportation and lodging are not included in price

FAQ

!? How is the Lovergirl Weekend Workshop different from Curved 2 Cuffed (C2C)?

Curved 2 Cuffed is a 12-week virtual group program that is designed to help high-achieving women of faith who are already dating ...but would love to significantly improve the quality of men they're attracting (through transformational inner work) and increase the quality of their love lives towards marriage (or other desired romantic commitment.)

Me and my team of coaches work with you each week through detailed, personalized coaching to constantly refine and reshape your dating practices so that not only are you regularly dating quality men...but you have several who are seriously pursuing you for marriage (or other commitment).

The focus is an entire life transformation.

The Lovergirl Weekend Workshop is an in-person, 2-day immersive workshop designed as a major deep dive into the design of your dating life.

You'll work with me up close and in-person to get you started on a successful dating journey and have you leave with a tangible plan of action to make dating a real priority in your life.

The focus is a dating life transformation.

Think of C2C as a full College course to reach several love life goals and the Lovergirl Weekend Workshop as a Bootcamp to reach one key goal in your love life- dating deliciously.

OR

Think of the Lovergirl Weekend Workshop as a place to design a dating plan and C2C is for ongoing guidance, support and accountability to carry out this plan.

!? I already took C2C and I'm curious about joining the Lovergirl Workshop. Is this stuff I already learned?

Although there is a lot of personalized coaching that helps you refine your personalized dating experience ...because C2C is so fast paced...we currently do not do a super deep dive into how to design your dating experience in the modules. I'm teaching 10+ hours into this subject matter and this is the first time ever I'm teaching this content. Please feel free to submit an application if you feel drawn to attend for whatever reason.

!? I'm planning to show up and follow your process. Is there anything else I need to be successful?

You must be fully responsible for your goals, committed to your own success and open for uncomfortable change. As long as you are ready for that...you'll be successful 😊 .

!? Are there any Scholarship Opportunities?

There are no scholarships available for this event. This event is only for economically stable women with the energy, time, and income to be able to attend the event comfortably. I wouldn't recommend this event to anyone who doesn't have those 3 things.

!? How long can I expect to be in session during the Weekend.

Please plan to be ready and in session from 9am - 5pm both Friday and Saturday. This could slightly increase an hour or so depending on when we schedule the photoshoot.

!? Since the investment doesn't cover lodging, where will workshop attendees be staying/sleeping?

We will provide a list of recommended hotels that workshop attendees can book that is in close proximity to the Lovergirl Location. You will be responsible for reserving your own room and making sure you get to the property both days.

!? What if I decide to enroll into the Lovergirl Workshop and realize I can't make it? What is the refund policy?

Due to the nature of our services and our company-wide “Full Body Yes” Requirement... our policy is that when you sign off on the terms and services, you understand that by enrolling you are in complete agreement and fully responsible for your decision to enroll.

As a full-adult, your head, heart and gut is saying “YES” to making a conscious decision to commit to a decision until completion. Because of this understanding, there will not be any refunds issued after enrollment.

If you cannot attend the workshop after enrollment for whatever reason, you can apply what you’ve already invested to another service including (but not limited to) Formation, Curved 2 Cuffed, C2C Mastery, or another in-person Workshop or Retreat.

Your investment includes:

One Pre-Workshop Connection Call with all the Lovergirls

2 Days of intimate group coaching sessions/workshops

Personal development activities of fun and pleasure

Private telegram chat within a week of the event to network.

Post-retreat Connection Call with all the Lovergirls
