

OASL Conference: Online, Great Authors, Low Price, Student Participation

Hi,

You're invited to attend the Oregon Association of School Libraries \(OASL\) Fall Conference on October 10th from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm Pacific. All school library staff as well as interested teachers, counselors, and administrators are welcome to attend. Registration is $50 for OASL members and $60 for non-members. This year's conference is full of sessions sure to re-energize an appreciation of literature, equity, and learning!

- Author Talk with Jelani Memory of the A Kids Book About series
- Author Talk with YA Project LIT author Padma Vankatragman (reflects a change in presenters)
- Author Talk with SEL author Trudy Ludwig
- Trauma Informed Practices with Alfonso Ramirez
- Book talks, OBOB/ORCA/BCCA/PGA reading promotion, COVID19, and LGBTQIA+ support sessions
- Vendor prizes and more!

Student Ticket Perk for Registrants

OASL 2020 registrants can now invite up to seven students to hear YA Project LIT author Padma Venkatraman speak at 10:00 am Pacific on October 10th, 2020! This is a free perk for registered attendees, who should complete this form for student access.

Access

OASL 2020 meeting links can be accessed multiple ways. Registered attendees will be able to access each session through Sched and/or through the hyperlinked OASL Dashboard document shared with all registered attendees (non-hyperlinked preview below). Simply click and go! More information on the OASL 2020 Access page. Attendees are encouraged to join early before the first session they are interested in to have time to resolve any technical difficulties.

Registration & Schedule

This conference is $50 for OASL members and $60 for non-members. All are welcome!
