Follow-up Message on LinkedIn (connected but haven't replied)

Hello [Name], reaching out to check in to see if you got the chance to read my last message portraying my utmost passion for working at Company Name as a Job Title.

Please let me know if there is anything I can do to make the process smoother.

Message on LinkedIn (Why should I refer you? I don't know you.)

"Hello, totally get it. I'd probably feel the same if I were in your shoes.

But to break the ice and see if we can create a win-win situation, how about a quick 15-minute coffee chat? It'd be great to put names to faces and give you a clearer picture of my background and why I think I could be a good fit for your company.

I know you're busy and probably get a ton of these messages, so I promise it won't take more than 15-20 minutes."
