

PRO-SOUTH (CONFEDERATE) (PRO-SLAVERY)

- Out of harm's way
- First 90% won't be noticed as quickly
- Christmas ornament
- Doesn't require jordan to redo the svg to fix the weird height offset of the two side dimples
- All of spawn is entirely enclosed within the smallest portion of our logo -- massive flex
 - Comparatively, putting spawn in the largest part of our logo is a lesser flex (even though they are the same size)
- Can hit the ground running since Iron's spawn circle will be part of the ring
 - Part of the job is already done! (thanks Iron)
- The first one wasn't geometrically perfectly centered, why does the next one? And the one after this can still be even bigger, does not need to be perfectly centered
- Triggers Emperor

PRO-NORTH (UNION) (ANTI-SLAVERY)

- Anyone leaving spawn, in any direction, will walk under multiple giant obsidian skies
- Entirely encloses the old logo without overlapping it. Sets up pattern for the future (next logo will completely enclose this one)
 - Counterpoint to future pattern: <https://i.imgur.com/87awOs5.jpg>
 - This is pro north section fuck off
- Impossible to build something partially enclosing spawn, unlike in south where emp could sorta do that
- Will be shown on all spawn renders properly
- Spawn is our lodge (G)
 - The G in the IRL cult logo that herm's in means "Grand Lodge" so it makes sense
 - This is WRONG ^ The G stands for God or
 - OK BOOMERGreat architect of the Universe - HermeticLock, Master Mason, 32nd Degree. The G is the initial of our Creator, and also of Geometry, the first and noblest of sciences.
 - G stands actually for Germany and now that the Germans took over the masons... ;)
 - So much so that the Belgians are afraid of another invasion
- Very accommodatingly doesn't cover up emp
- Everyone else has to build inside our belly
 - Anndroid can write vore fanfics
- Out of herm's way
- Won't be noticed as quickly
- No operation super close to spawn

- MUCH MORE AESTHETIC
- We can keep scaling this up till 60mil <-> 30 mil if south
- Leijurv polled his immediate family and everyone said north

I like how both sides have valid arguments tbh - todarac

I am negative entity
