

Answer the following questions. When appropriate, cite evidence from the letters and explain the importance.

1. Why did the narrator choose the selections she did?

2. In your opinion, did the narrator skip significant parts of the letters?

3. What do you see in the letters that the narrator didn't mention?

4. Do you think the narrator is deliberately de-emphasizing some aspects of Asia's words? Or did she just not have enough time to read more of the letters?
