He changed jobs endlessly for years to be close to her and now... the job he's finally selected puts her in danger. When she learns about his goddaughter, sees him with her, grows into a friendship with each of them, well, she might just fall in love.

I Apologize - It's not that Luke doesn't love Penelope. It's not that JJ doesn't love Will. It's just that sometimes these things happen. (Rated M)

Wordlessly - A mini fluff of Luke heading out for a long run, knowing he's going to be gone when Penelope wakes up so he leaves her prepared hot tea in a thermos and a nice china cup on the bed-side table so she can have bed tea without getting up in the cold.

find the one who fills your heart \(even if i'm not the one you choose\) - Before Luke Alvez, Penelope Garcia was in love with Emily Prentiss. The two women were together for four years, and then Emily moved to London, effectively closing the door on any future together that they may have had. What did that relationship look like? How did Penelope react, heal, recover? What did their friendship look like after?
