Issues:

Where to draw the line in a set of points. Recognizing when there should not be a line.

Where to draw the brackets for choosing the slope.

What is the formula for slope?

Which is y_1 and which is y_2 when choosing numbers for the equation.

Which is x_1 and which is x_2 when choosing numbers for the equation.

Where are the units on the graph and how do they relate to the numbers in the slope equation?

How to fit the units into the formula.

How to determine the units for the answer to the slope calculation.

What does the answer to the slope calculation mean?