

Sophie is spending some time with her gf Gabrielle for the weekend, just to hang out and watch some movies and stuff. However, things will not go to plan because Sophie caught the shrinking virus without realizing it. So in the morning, shortly after waking up, she suddenly feels weird and her whole body starts to shrink. She has no idea what's going on, she just knows that she's becoming the size of a bug and panics. And things are about to get a lot worse when she hears giant footsteps coming her way.

It's Gabrielle who woke up looking for her, and she does find her on the floor but assumes it's just some random bug. She says that she loves squishing bugs while hovering her enormous foot above her. Sophie knows her well and knows that she's not joking, this woman has the strange habit to step on bugs for fun. She screams and tries to tell Gabrielle that it's her, but she can't hear that...

THUD!

She slams her foot on Sophie's minuscule body, engulfing her in her black sock. She actually survives that without problem, the virus also made her really tough. But that doesn't change the fact that she still feels pain, and that huge stomp hurts her a lot. On top of that, the smell is atrocious because Gabrielle also has the habit to rarely change socks, making these smell absolutely horrible. When lifting her foot, she sees that this 'bug' is still intact and realizes that it is very resistant. This makes things even worse for Sophie since she wants to step on her some more because of that, and she does. She repeatedly steps on her, tormenting her in a cruel way in the process. Each stomps feel very painful, the smell is unbearable and makes her suffocate every time. She even grinds her under her foot, making some friction and increasing the heat even more. Sophie is just going through hell under her girlfriend's sock and there is nothing she can do about it...

Eventually, Gabrielle is satisfied and stops the stomping. This would put an end to this torture but unfortunately, she's stuck to her sock after all of this and remains here as Gabrielle walks and starts looking for Sophie again. Looks like she is not out of this predicament yet...
