Notes:

-The official setlist from the stage listed "Dynamite" for the last song, but it wasn't played.

- A touring keyboardist/guitarist accompanied the band. At one point Peter introduced him, but I missed his name.
- Nothing was played from "The Sound of Music." :(
- Will's brother and mother(!) were in the audience.

ROB says: It was a great show, and it marked the live debut of Will's "Write Back"!
