Veterinary Medicine Rep Report - Erika Marcelo

No engagement during reading week.

I had the privilege of engaging with a diverse group of students. I asked if they knew what I do and got a mix of answers, which helped start a good conversation. We talked about different topics that matter to them.

I shared with them my contact details, inviting them to reach out for more talks or to share their thoughts. I look forward to working with the AVC students.