FRONT DESIGN

*"May your life be like a wildflower, growing freely in the beauty and joy of each day."
-Native American Proverb*

Planting bee-friendly wildflowers is definitely an easy way to help our buzzing friends and these wildflowers are the perfect option for your garden. Wildflowers are rich in nectar and pollen and the perfect color to attract honeybees. Then you can enjoy the beauty and colors throughout the growing season.

* Plant seeds in a sunny location after the danger of spring frost has passed and the soil temperature is at least 60 degrees.

* Prepare the ground by raking and scatter the seeds by hand for a random mixture of flowers.

* Flowers will grow and bloom throughout the growing season depending on the seeds.
