

Hi all!

Come live with my friends and roommates while I spend the summer away from the bay area!

Five of us live here—artists, activists, plant whisperers, moon gazers—sharing this beautiful space together and grateful and excited that we might share it with more of our community. We are calling in people who are aligned with our core values and treat our home as a space for gathering as well as for sanctuary. In the past, folks who have sublet in our apartment have ended up moving in with us as well.

The Basics

 Our house is located just below tank hill in Cole Valley. We are walking distance to cafes, grocery stores, downtown cole valley, and 5 San Francisco parks (including golden gate park and the gorgeous interior greenbelt).

 Accessibility: the apartment is located near the top of a hill, up a flight of stairs (20 steps). Everything at the apartment is available at that level.

 There is ample parking in the neighborhood, though you will need to purchase a parking permit. We also have bike parking available in the garage.

 We also have a lovely backyard that we share with other tenants in the building, and in-unit laundry!

 Unfortunately we are not able to accept couples, as we have a limit of 5 tenants in the house. Your loved ones are welcome to visit!

🌱 No pets please - our landlady does not allow us to have any pets!

🎤 We are a predominantly QTPOC group and we're open to roomies of all ages.

Our Values

Creativity & Play

What you can expect when living with us:

✨ Nourishing house dinners—imagine late-night conversations around the kitchen table where we're laughing, crying, cheering each other on, with art supplies lying close by, music playing in the background, & hella good tea!

✨ Gatherings that we host for our friends and greater communities centered around creativity, justice, spirituality, & anything else you are called to explore! Our home is a place where people meet, find each other, and are enlivened, yet we also make time & space for introversion.

✨ Outings where we can connect with the natural world beyond our home—sunset walks to Tank Hill, Mt. Sutro hikes, bird watching in Golden Gate Park, mushroom foraging, & more!

We thrive in diversity

We strongly value cultivating a home in which people of color & queer folk can feel safe, seen, and valued. We are calling in people who require diversity to thrive. The times we live in are filled with magic and misery, and we see our home as a place to dance in the in-between spaces beyond binaries. Our home is a place where you can be exactly as you are.

Compassionate Communication

We prioritize living in right relationship with one another: we value proactive, compassionate, gentle, & humble communication. We hold space for friction and conflict, and strive to move towards each other from a place of love, self-awareness, and growth. We all lean into extrovert and introvert energies at our own pace.

Care for our home and beyond

We hold a high standard of cleanliness & organization for our home. We honor our shared space and the world beyond it, orienting towards care, justice, and action towards the greater San Francisco & Bay Area community we live in.

A spirit of emergent dreaming

The spirit of our community is ever-shifting. We are considering projects like a shared food plan, community art-making spaces, forging connections with other kindred communities in the Bay Area, & much more.

~Come dream with us!~ 😊
