File: Ritchie 'Anhedonia' Blackmore

Commander of Cell Omega-2

Background

Age:22

Birth Date: Jan. 17th, 2003

Gender: Male Weight: 107 KG Height: 5'11"

Place of Birth: Pasqua Hospital, Regina, Saskatchewan Appearance: Ritchie is a well built man and has a short well kept beard, with scar on his left cheek. He has black hair, and brown eyes. He has gained more scars after his time in the insurgency; this is mostly due to his tenure at Cell Shiva. The scars gained mostly reside on his right arm and chest.

Psych Eval: Ritchie isn't a very serious person, often joking and being seemingly uninterested in most situations. While he may seem uninterested, he cares. He can be serious when the situation calls for it, but simply believes his joking attitude will help others handle high stress scenarios.

Ritchie, while born in Regina, spent most of his life living in a small town called Milestone. Like many residents of the province he took up a career in the trades, and was looking to become a welder. During this time in his life he also trained and fought as a boxer in the province with an unimpressive record of 2-0. Before he could become a boxer, or a welder his normal life was cut short. During a camping trip deep in the woods he had an unfortunate run in with some escaped D-Class, and foundation. The details of what happened are foggy, but it led to him having to go on the run. He chose to flee north, and eventually ended up near Cell Omega. With foundation and CI in the middle of a firefight, he opted to help the group that hadn't been pursuing him for months. This resulted in him joining Cell Omega, and becoming a member of the insurgency.

After joining, rising the ranks was no trouble. Quickly taking a position as an NCO, and also being trained in every single thing he could be. Whether it was research, or explosives he was learning about them. Not long after, he became an officer. Then the Colonel of the cell. He served as long as he could, but after hearing his commander's plans he decided to leave the cell, not wanting to support a maniac. This led him to Cell Shiva where he fought and used his extensive experience fighting sarkics to help lead the CI forces there to some success. Now that he is back at Cell Omega, he plans to help keep things operating smoothly.

Don't take anything beyond this point in character pal!
