

Martin Drobiarz

Marty lives in Old Saybrook, CT with his wife Elizabeth and has 3 children, Heather, Alison and Jonathan. A graduate of UCONN School of Pharmacy in 1978, Marty owns Northeast Medical Products, Inc. – a retailer and wholesaler of medical equipment, supplies and pharmaceuticals. Marty's bar mitzvah date was June 22, 1968 and following that, he became active in USY, serving as its president the following year.

Marty stayed involved by helping to lead services with his father Henry for several years until moving away from the area. The Drobiarz family has deep roots in Temple Beth Israel and Marty feels honored to serve on the Board of Directors.
