General informations

All prices below are base prices for featuring 1 character. For additional characters, [base price]\*[number of characters] will apply (e.g. half-body, full color illustration, 2 characters =  $95\text{€} \times 2 = 190\text{€}$ ).

Prices vary depending on the character's complexity. Please keep in mind that complexity fees may apply.

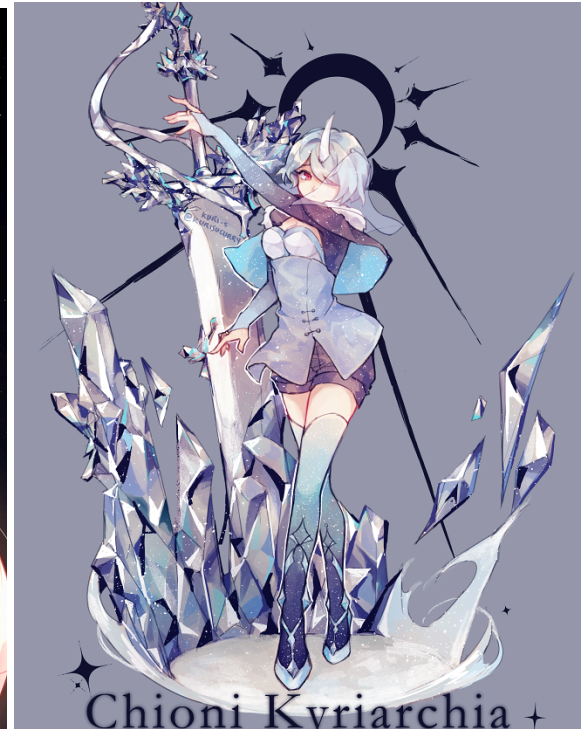

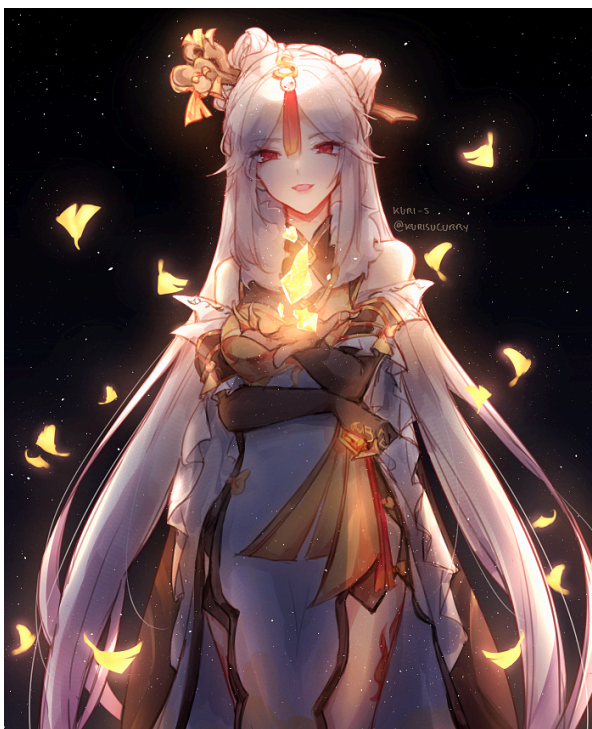

I usually don't draw linearts (except for chibis, lineart is included). But if requested, I can and I will charge extras. Base price for lineart for 1 character is 20 EUR.

I won't do (non-exhaustive, feel free to ask):

- NSFW
- Very muscular characters
- Furry or anthropomorphic characters (but animal ears or tails are OK.)
- Animals

Payment

1. I only accept payments in euros (€, EUR) by Paypal.
2. Do not send your payment unless I asked you to.
3. You can not ask for a refund while I'm working on the drawing or if the drawing is complete.
4. If for any reason I could not finish the drawing and you already paid, I will fully refund you.

Process

1. Contact me by my email with the following informations:
  - Your paypal email.
  - Precise what type of drawing you are choosing (e.g. full color illustration halfbody ; colored sketch bust, etc...).
  - The character(s) you want me to draw with references (pictures are heavily recommended, english is not my native language so I would like to avoid misunderstandings).
  - Anything you want to add.

Attention: My coloring/painting style varies a lot and isn't very consistent. Always refer to my latest drawings for a better idea of my current style.

2. I will make sure that I received everything I need to start working on your commission. If anything is missing, I will contact you to request additional information.
3. I will draw a rough sketch and send the watermarked version to you. Please make sure that everything looks correct to you at the sketch step. Once we agree on everything, the sketch will not go through any major change. Then I will ask you to send me the payment in full.
4. Once I received your payment and I started working on the drawing, I will not accept any major adjustment. I will not charge you for minor adjustments if they are not excessive.
5. I will always check my email box and so will you. Feel free to email me if you need my current progression on your request.
Only if I don't reply: please contact me by private messages on my social media.
6. Once completed, you will receive two files: 1 high resolution png file (300 dpi, suited for personal printing), 1 low resolution png file (72 dpi, suited for web uses or sharing).

My time zone is Central European Time (UTC+1, or UTC+2 with DST).
