

What is “WOCOTW”?

We are a twitter based on “Warrior of the Week” by @TheClandom. But, rather than canon characters, we want to spotlight people’s ocs!

How does it work?

Once every week, we will spotlight a submitted Warrior Cats oc, and encourage people to draw fanart of said oc! The posts will be tagged with #WOCOTW, and the creator of the oc may be tagged. The spotlight will continue for a week, before the next oc gets a turn.

How do I submit my character?

You fill in the form below! Reminder to only submit your own ocs (or ocs you have permission to use) and to source any art that is not yours. Do not submit more than one!

IMPORTANT: If you are known to be a problematic person, we refuse to post your oc.

When will my oc be in the spotlight?

We do not know! It depends on how many characters were submitted prior to your submission. It might take a few weeks, but it can also take way longer. Please be patient with us!

Wait...Who’s running this?

My main is Neon_catss @ Twitter! More mods might be added in the future!

Who are the cats in the banner and icon?

The cat in my icon is my oc Steelheart, and the cat in the banner is my oc Littleblink!
