

Deer killing disease discovered in Jackson County August 24, 2025 West Virginia

WV News

... an outbreak of hemorrhagic disease (HD) in white-tailed deer in several counties in the western part of the state along the Ohio River... “The most recent outbreak was in 2024, where it was substantially more sizable than we are seeing to date in 2025.”..,

Hemorrhagic Disease outbreak in deer. no threat to public health August 20, 2025 West Virginia, WTAP on MSN

... Forty-nine reports of dead deer have come in for Wood County, all believed by the W. Va. DNR to be related to the HD outbreak... over the past few decades, the outbreaks have been becoming more frequent ...

Number of deceased deer rises due to HD in Jackson County October 1, 2025 WV News

... “While we may not have seen an outbreak of HD of this severity in Wood and Jackson County in the recent past, we have experienced similar outbreaks of HD in other areas of the state in recent decades and the deer population naturally recovers from these outbreaks without any additional measures in relatively short order (a few years at most),” ... the most recent update on deer reported deceased in Jackson County is 341 while Roane County is at 25 reports