2. Purpose and conditions of use

This website provides information about the SOSS4EREC project, its partners, activities and results, and allows visitors to send questions to the project team. Access is free and does not require registration.

Anyone who accesses this website becomes a user and accepts this legal notice. Users agree to use the website lawfully and in good faith. In particular, they agree not to:

- use the website or its content for unlawful purposes or in ways that harm the rights of OECOOP or third parties;
- introduce viruses or any other code that could damage the website or its users' systems;
- try to access restricted areas of the website or the systems that support it without authorisation;
- send false information through the forms, or information about other people without their permission.

OECOOP may change the content, design or structure of the website, and these conditions, at any time. Changes take effect when published on the website.

3. Intellectual and industrial property

The content of this website, including texts, images, graphic design, logos and trademarks, belongs to OECOOP or to third parties who have authorised its use. It is protected by intellectual and industrial property law.

You may use the content for non-commercial purposes, provided you clearly cite OECOOP and the SOSS4EREC project as the source and, in online use, link to this website. Any other reproduction, distribution, public communication or transformation requires OECOOP's prior written permission. Third parties may link directly to specific pages of this website or to its home page. Displaying the content of this website within a frame on another website (framing) is not permitted without OECOOP's permission. OECOOP reserves the right to take legal action to protect its intellectual and industrial property rights.

The logos, names and content of the SOSS4EREC project partners and other organisations belong to their respective owners and are shown with their permission. The EU emblem is used in accordance with the European Union's visibility rules for funded projects. Showing third-party logos or names does not grant any rights over them.

If you believe any content on this website infringes your rights, please write to info@oecoop.coop and we will review it promptly.

4. Liability, links and EU funding disclaimer

Content. OECOOP takes care to keep the information on this website accurate and up to date, but some of it may be incomplete or out of date when you read it. The information is for guidance only and does not create any contractual obligation.

Availability. OECOOP works to keep the website available at all times, but cannot rule out programming errors or interruptions due to force majeure or other causes beyond its control. OECOOP is not liable for damage caused by interruptions, technical errors or viruses that occur despite reasonable security measures, or for misuse of the website by users.

Links. This website may link to websites run by project partners and other organisations. OECOOP does not control and is not responsible for their content or privacy practices. If you find that a linked site contains unlawful content, please let us know at info@oecoop.coop and we will remove the link, in line with Arts. 11 and 16 LSSI-CE.

EU funding disclaimer. The SOSS4EREC project is co-funded by the European Union. The following statement applies to the SOSS4EREC pages:

> Co-funded by the European Union under Grant Agreement No [XXXXXXXXX]. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or [granting authority]. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for them.

[Check the exact wording, and the name of the granting authority, against the visibility clause of your Grant Agreement (for LIFE projects the granting authority is usually CINEA). Show this statement next to the EU emblem in the footer of every page of the project website.]

5. Data protection, cookies and applicable law

Data protection. How we process the personal data you send us through this website is explained in our Privacy Policy [insert link].

Cookies. Information on the cookies this website uses, and how to manage them, is in our Cookie Policy [insert link].

Applicable law and jurisdiction. This legal notice and any dispute relating to this website are governed by Spanish law. Disputes will be resolved by the courts of the user's place of residence or of the place where the obligation is to be performed.

Language. This legal notice is also available in [Catalan] and [Spanish]. In case of discrepancy, the [Catalan] version prevails.
