

TEN COMMANDMENTS BEFORE SINAI? The ten commandments precede Sinai. We know this is true because references to the ten commandments exist in some form or fashion prior to Sinai. And God could not hold those breaking them accountable if there was no law (Romans 4:15).

- Genesis 35:1 (No other Gods)
- Genesis 35:2 (No graven images)
- Genesis 24:3 (No taking God's name in vain)
- Genesis 2:3 / Exodus 16:28-29 (Remember the seventh day Sabbath)
- Genesis 27:41 (Honor your father and mother)
- Genesis 4:7-9 (No murder)
- Genesis 39:6-9 (No adultery)
- Genesis 44:5 (No stealing)
- Genesis 39:10-12, 16-17 (No false witness)
- Genesis 12:18 (No coveting)

TEN COMMANDMENTS AFTER SINAI AND THE CROSS? The ten commandments remain. We know this is true because references to the ten commandments exist in some form or fashion after Sinai and the Cross. And God could not hold those breaking them accountable if there was no law (Romans 4:15).
