Cyberyaminakaa's Terms of Service

I do reserve the right to decline a commission for any reason.

If I take long on a commission, keep in mind that:

- ★ I'm working on my big and small projects.
- ★ I'm working on Animations.
- ★ Any owed art I have.
- ★ Any other things will be in my Patreon and Trello updates.

Before you comm/buy

By commissioning me and/or purchasing my designs, you choose to abide by my terms of service. You are fully liable for breaking it, and accept the consequences of doing so.

Breaking and violating my T.O.S more then once, It will result in you getting blacklisted, blocked and prohibited from commissioning me / gaining any of my designs. (This applies to my NSFW content as well.)

T.O.S

🌀 I won't know when I will complete the work, so constantly check my Queue. I will give you an update if it has been longer than a month and my queue is not been updated (If there are multiple commissions I'm doing, then my queue will have information on it.) I will send you a message.

🌀 The prices of the commissions aren't final. Further things will be discussed after I receive your form.

🌀 Refunds are only available if I can not complete the commission due to any personal reason or blacklisted. The sketch will be free!~

🌀 The Payment must be paid upfront, I won't start the commission until it's paid.

★ I can do holds up to a week. I won't start the commission until it's paid. (to avoid any scammers)

★ For first-time commissioners, you can pay half the price of the commission, and when I send the sketch is approved by you, then you can send the remaining amount.

🌀 I will send a work-in-progress sketch (Will be marked), and any fixes can be done at this stage.

★ Any corrections must be stated before I continue working.

★ After the first correction sketch, if there are any other needs for corrections will cost an additional small fee.

🌀 I do NSFW and gore, but I have a separate T.O.S. for that content.

★ I do not have my SFW and NSFW content mix.

★ I can do a little bit of blood and scars, but anything more than that is not for SFW.

🌀 Take a look at my list of Do's and Don'ts to get a general idea. The list isn't complete; if there is something you want but don't see on the list, ask if I can do that.

🌀 Any customs you get from me are for personal use only. For commercial use, an additional fee. (14 USD)

★ Custom art offers do not apply to this.

🌀 Do not use any of my work for NFTs or feed it to AI.

🌀 Do not claim my artwork/design as your own or refuse to credit me.

🌀 You may repost the commission on your page, but please tag me. Look at my social links to find my accounts.

🌀 Feel free to ask any questions. 🌀

🌀 My art is for personal use! If you're a brand or a VTuber, the commercial fee will be determined by the commission. 🌀

🌀 I do have a waitlist if I end up getting piled with commissions. 🌀

🌀 I do customs as well. Here's the form for them. 🌀
