Why did you want to listen to this album? How did you hear about it? What grabbed your attention?

I wanted to listen to this album because I loved Noah Kahan's last country album and all his music sounds so meaningful and unique. It grabs my attention because his lyrics surround me with a warm and comforting feeling and brings me so much joy to listen to.

What is this album about? What interesting details can you tell us about it?

The album is about insecurity in love but also the peace that love and being in a relationship gives you. His songs bring a sense of comfort in love and happiness in your life which is always much needed to brighten your day.

What was your favorite song off the album and why? What was your least favorite song and why?

My favorite song from the album is All My Love because the tune is beautiful and the lyrics feel real, like something out of a real conversation between someone you miss or once cared about. My least favorite was Strawberry Wine only because the tune and beat of the song was different and a little too slow for the songs I usually like and listen to.

Does this album remind you of any other type of album you've listened to?

This album reminds me a lot of the Lumineers albums. Their music is very similar and the way they sing gives me the same feelings everytime I hear it.

Who would you recommend this album to? What type of person would enjoy this?

I would recommend this album to anyone who enjoys country music or any of his other albums because this album, in my opinion, is definitely his best.

What are your thoughts on the album cover? Do you think the cover fits what the album is about?

The cover of the album is very simple, just as his music makes me feel. I think the cover is beautiful, especially the color and composition of the background.

Any other thoughts about the album?

This album was perfect and definitely worth listening to if you enjoy country music.
