

Oakhammer, Hammer +5, +6 vs. Goblins, Kobolds, and Orcs
by Meefman

This is a light hammer with a handle made of petrified oak wood; the head of the hammer is made of adamantine. The handle has gold bands wrapped around it at regular intervals. The gold bands have elven and dwarven symbols etched on them. The head of the hammer is embossed with a golden hammer symbol and five silver leaf symbols. This is the favored weapon of the god Morlanellos from the Quantol campaign setting by Meefman. Only one exists and it is currently held by Morlanellos. It is a +5 light hammer, +6 vs. goblins and orcs which immediately returns to its owner's hand when thrown. All associates of the hammer's owner that are within 150 feet of the hammer get a +2 bonus on to hit rolls, damage rolls, and saving throws. If an orc, kobold, or goblin tries to wield the weapon they will be instantly destroyed with no saving throw or spell resistance allowed.
