Bands, Blankets & Big Hearts: Community Concert Announced

Where great music meets a great cause—come enjoy the tunes and help bring warmth and hope to our neighbors in need.

Simulationville, ST — Oct. 15, 2025

Open Door Outreach, a nonprofit that provides warming shelters and clothing resources to individuals experiencing homelessness, will host its first-annual community fundraising concert on Saturday, Oct. 15, 2025, from 7 p.m. to midnight at Central Square Park in Downtown Simulationville.

The event will include performances by El-A-Ex, a band that plays original and contemporary music. And Bluffing, a local country music group. Admission is free, and attendees are encouraged to bring winter clothing, professional attire, warm blankets and a suggested ten dollar donation to support Open Door Outreach's programs.

"We rely on the generosity of our community to continue providing warmth, safety and dignity to our neighbors experiencing homelessness," said a spokesperson for Open Door Outreach.

"This concert is not just an event — it is an opportunity for everyone in Simulationville to come together for a meaningful cause."

About Open Door Outreach

Open Door Outreach is a nonprofit organization based in Simulationville dedicated to providing essential support for individuals experiencing homelessness. The organization offers a seasonal warming shelter from November 1 to March 31 and provides year-round clothing distribution, including coats, hats, gloves, scarves, business wear, and blankets. Through community donations, volunteer support, and collaborative partnerships, Open Door Outreach works to enhance the safety and well-being of vulnerable residents.

The upcoming event aims to bring together community members, local officials, media partners, and volunteers to raise awareness and generate support ahead of the cold season. Participation helps fund critical services, strengthens community engagement, and increases visibility for the organization's mission.
