SOME EXAMPLES OF CLIENT RESULTS

Anjali Tewari Admin

Anonymous member This is an amazing outcome and shows the power of being able to think through the strategies with an experienced divorce negotiation coach ...

With the 90 min discussion we had, you saved yourself $30,000 in trial fees - money that goes directly in your pocket vs your lawyer. Combining this with the $35,000 you already spent in pre-trial prep, per our discussion, this clearly outlines the value in having an unbiased 3rd party on your side to help you to get different perspectives

Literally 40 hours before trial, you have been able to save $30,000 that your lawyer would have spent with her insistence to goto trial I am so glad you posted and asked for help and that is the power of the group and access to me as an expert who has a lot of experience negotiating !!

I am so happy for you 🥰

Saved $30,000 by coming in 40 hrs before trial started

Anjali Tewari I appreciated every single minute of our conversation. Having a divorce coach is invaluable. I wish I could turn back the hands of time and bring you onboard my support team way at the beginning. Not only would I have saved money, but I would also have had someone to guide me through the process far better than my legal team was able to do.

Wishing they could turn back time ... would have got someone to guide better than the legal team !!

Anjali Tewari thank you for your generosity in terms of time and information. Everything you said is true, and our conversation made it clear that the best time to connect with you was at the beginning of the divorce process. I would have saved no less than $50K and had a forensic accountant onboard.

Would have saved $50,000 by coming to me earlier

Before I started working with Anjali, I felt very scared, unsure and had such an enormous amount of anxiety that I would physically get ill. My idea about the court system was very much through rose-colored glasses. I cried a lot. I actually was crying when I was waiting to get on the phone for the consultation with Anjali.

During my conversation, I could slowly feel my worries fade. My attorney explained to me the whole process is a roller coaster. Which so far, it very much has been. I wanted someone who has been on the roller coaster and understands what the ride is like so they can help me so I am not scared or worried about the next drop or the next turn. There are so many unknowns in this whole process. Not only am I trying to free myself from a monster, but I am trying to advocate for myself, which is something that I have not done for years. My mindset is still mostly in survival mode, I want to change that.

In my 30-minute consultation, I not only finally felt heard, but I also felt empowered. Empowered to make decisions to help myself. I was given a list of items requested by my soon to be ex-husband. I had spent countless hours crying, negotiating with myself over being to giving, not giving enough, where do I compromise, how do I get this done right away and so many other feelings. Anjali explained to me what to do and how to approach it. If I had not had the conversation with Anjali on how to approach the list, then I would have felt pressured to give my soon to be ex almost $100,000 in assets. So, we came up with a plan for how to use it as a negotiation strategy to ensure that things are divided fairly.

I am extraordinarily grateful for her input, directness and passion to help. I am just so extremely fortunate to have Anjali on my team. I cannot stress enough how informative and helpful Anjali is. Why not invest in yourself and try a 30-minute consultation. I am so glad I did, because I now have someone on my team that wants to see me be successful. I have now signed up for her Narcissist Divorce Mastery program and cannot wait to start on my journey to freedom knowing that I now have an advocate for me.

You need to be on team

Your information is priceless.

I would like to share how I found a remarkable woman online and how she helped me save more than $250k while continuing to guide me during my highly contentious divorce.

Anjali Tewari is on social media and luckily, I came upon her video. She spoke of a introductory masterclass that would benefit women going through the divorce process. The class is free and within the hour of her presentation, I was hooked.

On our first 1:1 session, I knew she knew her understanding of the court system and how to avoid major pitfalls (through her own experience) as well as getting my attorney on board and moving the case forward. The second 1:1 call was absolutely phenomenal. Through our discussion, she helped me save more than $250k and it was only the second conversation!

Anjali's masterclass is a hands-on way of learning. You will hear, speak, see and write in her class. Nothing difficult at all, but I believe the more "senses" utilized the better the understanding.

I trust her instincts implicitly so much so I want to share the gem I found on-line. She has given me hope, understanding and peace of mind during this trying time.

Thank you Ms. Anjali Tewari for all you have accomplished in my case in such a short period of time. I am forever grateful and appreciative of you and your dedication to help women!

THIS GROUP COACHING CLIENT IS SEEING CHANGES IN SEVERAL ASPECTS OF HER LIFE !!

Today I went to my attorney's. We were working on a list from my ex's attorney. I had worked with Anjali on one of the items. (I had tried to resolve things before getting lawyers involved). My attorney was very impressed with what Anjali and I had come up with and actually used our respond as his response as well! I am so very grateful for Anjali and all her knowledge! Please, if you haven't signed up for her class do yourself a favor and do it!!!

I have had multiple people tell me they notice a huge difference in me. I am more confident and happy. Anjali has helped me in several aspects of my life! Her Narcissist Divorce Master Program has changed my life in such a positive way. I will forever be grateful for Anjali.

THIS GROUP COACHING CLIENT IS SEEING INCREASE IN CONFIDENCE IN COURT

I am taking the course! It is life changing! I went from crying in the closet, being physically ill daily to confident and excited about my future. I no longer have anxiety about getting emails from my attorney! This course is so very informative and easy to apply to your life!

Feedback on the Narcissist Divorce Mastery program

"You are only going to help yourself by choosing to do this course. Choose to do this as your self care, it will greatly help you."

"You owe it to yourself to invest in a coach (like Anjali) that has been there and can help you lay out a plan to succeed!"

"I love the feeling of having someone I trust and know has my best interest at heart on my side." I don't feel alone or scared when something comes up.

I feel empowered and confident and know what I am going to say.

Impossible to improve perfection

More confident in addressing financial issues and understanding how a spouse will dispose/hide money to prevent or lessen the amount to be divided

I feel confident in what we came up. This is not my first consult with you, each time I leave the conversation feeling so empowered and confident.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart, you are amazing!

This course is really helping me write things down and focus on the important things. During divorce your head can turn to mush and this helps me stay on track. It will really help me with the process and it is building my confidence.

Watch the modules. Everything you are thinking, someone else has been through. This module helps you to refocus and think about what is important.

More confidence, feeling like I have someone with superpowers to help me!

I don't feel as scared anymore because I have the information that I need. I know he won't get advice so he won't be prepared for me being prepared.

This will help reduce your solicitors bills as you can ask all the questions you need and not feel like nothing is getting answered.

This course really helps you focus and get organized. I now feel like I know what the important bits are and so when my husband tries to blind side me with things then I can refocus because I have it all written down to keep me on track.

That is why the Narcissist Divorce mastery program covers all aspects of dealing with a narcissist divorce - emotional, financial, healing, legal, psychological, coparenting, preventing post-divorce abuse and probably a few more that I can't think of right now ...

And I think - and I may be biased - that there is nothing really out there like this !!

I love that you cover everything as a whole. It is vitally important. I don't think there is anything out there like this. Not only that there isn't anything out there, but your system works. It really is impressive!

I can not express enough my gratitude for you. Thank you! ❤️

You will be a changed person at the end of 12 weeks Tam ... then it's more about continuing to work on yourself and getting the coaching to continue the momentum

The court system can be so scary and intimidating. Especially now that there is a huge movement for father's rights.

You have absolutely changed my life in so many ways and so very much for the good!

Yes - it's scary because the narcissists already manipulate the existing legal system - this movement is likely to make it get worse ...

So if we don't understand how to make the system see our side of things we are at a severe disadvantage.... 😞

Yes, yes, yes! Not to mention trying to heal from an abusive relationship while going through all of it.

It is absolutely scary how manipulative they are

THIS CLIENT IS SEEING CHANGES IN 3 WEEKS IN NARCISSIST DIVORCE MASTERY PROGRAM !!

I have been in this program for 3 weeks now. I am forever grateful.

When I first met Anjali, I was so stressed, fearful, and had so much anxiety I would get physically ill. My first 30 minute meeting with Anjali resulted in me not feeling pressured in to turning over approximately $100,000 in assets to my ex. Instead she help me come up with a strategy to use the assets to make sure things are divided fairly.

After that 30 minute consultation, I decided to invest in myself and hire Anjali to be my divorce coach and to take her Narcissist Divorce Mastery Program. Let me tell you, in just three weeks, I am not even 1/3 of the way through and am in a totally different mindset. I have confidence and feel happy about my future. I know that I have someone on my side that is so very knowledgeable and has also experienced all of this herself.

Please, invest in yourself. Decide to make this important step for yourself, you will be so very glad you did!

THIS CLIENT CAME TOWARDS THE END OF PROCESS AND GOT CLARITY TO PROCEED WITH HER CASE !!

POWER of a Consultation - Clarity on Process

I stumbled upon Anjali and her Confident Women Navigating Divorce group several months ago and wish I had immediately signed up to her program. I finally attended one of her seminars and took her up on a free consultation at which she generously gave of her time and knowledge.

I certainly wish I had found her earlier as I'm nearing the end of my divorce. However, I still found tremendous value in the information and suggestions that Anjali provided as prior to connecting with her, I felt lost and completely out of control. I didn't understand the process or my rights and responsibilities.

I am now more confident in dealing with the legal system and more clear in what I want and need. She explained how narcissists behave in court and what our lawyers' strengths and limitations are.

As an added bonus, Anjali encouraged me to start walking and I started that day. She is a caring woman wanting the best outcome for those going through divorce.

Thank you, Anjali.

FROM FEELING STUCK TO EMPOWERED IN 3 WEEKS !!

I am forever grateful for you. Thank you for taking your hardship and struggles and using them to empower me to not have to go this this alone. I think in dealing with narcissists or high conflict person, it becomes hard to know who to trust, and that overwhelming feeling of loneliness and fear can be so much to carry. You are an amazing woman, and I can not put into words my gratitude for you. You have helped me in my journey so much already, I am excited for my future and not afraid to tackle whatever my ex decides to throw my way. Thank you! ❤️

I have said it once, and I will say it again. In the beginning, I felt like I was in a dark room. I couldn't see anything. Every so often, the light would switch on, and I would frantically try to find my way. Then I met you and it totally changed everything for me. I now feel happy, empowered, and ready to go to battle. I have learned so much in just 3 weeks from you!
