

NPCs

Name: Michelle Jackson

Position: Warden

Appearance: A 7'11 woman extremely white. Eyes blue as crystal, hair curly and down reaching to her shoulders with a single strand in her eyes. Isn't a very curved woman but does have a good bust and her entire body is toned and muscular skin tight. She wears only one glove on her right hand it sparkles brightly. She wears white suit with a black tie and a white fedora with a black band around it. Wears a spiked dog collar around her neck, it has a leash for the vice to pull her back. Her smooth dress shoes are tapping shoes whenever she's excited. Has a belt built with a variety of dispensers for treats.

Personality: Smiling at all times. She enjoys high energized music. She is weak to the knees for pets the cuter they are the better to her. She begs to pet an animal to the owner. Has a nice collection of pets, they really are prisoners who once tried to escape. The only real pet she has is a small Shiba dog. She loves to flaunt around animals and state facts about them. Only way to get her mad is by hurting her pets, or if the situation in Impel Down grows dire. She then becomes a silent woman and doesn't speak a word while she fights and pursues.

Name: Rin Watanabe

Position: Vice-Warden

Appearance: 7 foot tall lean figure. With his long arms he wears a black kimono that envelops past his hands. Wearing a belt around his waist of a light grey. The robe has patterns of dragons and he has his long hair hanging down. With a Squamish face and stern eyes he walks in wooden sandals. Having his Katana to his side. Carrying a bamboo cup of boiling water at all times.

Personality: Quite the calm man from the long arm tribe. He has no liking for animals, at least publicly. He shows no liking for them but if in danger will save them. Constantly using the excuse it's for the Warden. He works hard at keeping the Warden on track and does his best to relax back. When the situation needs his assistance he'll walk to the destination. Is a sassy person and talks down to everyone even the Warden. Pulls on the Warden's leash if she gets too excited.

Name: Eric Anderson

Position: Chief Guard

Appearance: 5'8 tall with a hunch, 45 years old. Wears a duck hat bill and all. The hat extends down his back like a type of Cape and unzipped onesie. Has big fuzzy eyebrows hanging off his face down to his waist. He wears a tight body suit white as the duck on his head. Around his waist he has a thin belt with a steel buckle. Has an animal whistle in his mouth that he can switch from a duck call to just being high pitched for the beasts.

Personality: Head of the Mino beasts. He likes to goof around. Walking like a duck with his arms folded to his sides like wings. Strutting his head forward like a duck. He doesn't talk he simply blows through the whistle quacking. Will stomp the ground if displeased. When he gets serious he cracks his back and stands up straight. Still doesn't talk instead in his own voice says, quack.

Name: Damian Palmer

Position: Head Jailer

Appearance: A 5' man with an afro adding an extra 2 feet to his height. Has a mustache and beard combo tied together as dreadlocks down his face. Very wide cheekbones and blindingly white teeth. Wears nothing but baggy Jagger pants. Has a tattoo on his chest of the jolly roger of a crew he once was part of. It resembles a skull hanging off a palm tree almost like a coconut.

Personality: Very light hearted and loves his ball and chain like family. Constantly smiling even when he's pissed. Loves to feel soft things like the Warden's pets. Will constantly be eating fruits and dropping the skins.

Name: Alecto Miles

Position: Vice-Head Jailer

Appearance: 5'7 feet tall. Short red hair split from the center so they don't cover her eyes. Wears a steampunk jacket with a thin tee underneath of it. Wearing skinny pants the knees having oversized bolts on them. She carries around a tank on her back that connects to her massive gauntlets. Wears 5 belts one on her pants, three on her torso and one tightly around her left leg. Flat chested.

Personality: Always crazy eyed. With a constant blood thirst she licks her lips continuously. She's cold and gives mean comments to even her co-workers. Anyone who tries to insult her back will have a limb crushed. Will constantly scream phrases showing that she wants blood. She only feels satisfaction once blood is spurted all over her body. Will have an orgasmic stand still once she's covered head to toe in blood.

Mino-Beasts

Bee Level 1

Donkey Level 2

Silverback Gorilla Level 3

Tree Frog Level 4

Beaver Level 5
Scorpion Level 6

Prisoners

Flint Durai - Ex Shichibukai

Devil fruit: Goro Goro no mi (Lightning)

Reason for Arrest: Betrayed by the World Government, and wrongfully held in Impel Down

Appearance: https://drive.google.com/open?id=0B_t5M4pSQvAeVXBqOVp0UXY3T28

Personality: Inspiring and determined. He appears to have a passionate hate for the World Government and a strong resolve.

Fighting Style: For now he is too weak to fight. Until he gets his strength back, all he can do is shoot weak lightning bolts. May be able to stun someone for a while.

Christina Reed - Ex Shichibukai

Reason for Arrest: Arrested for misusing her Shichibukai powers for human drug experimentation on Innodt. She was taken down after the new age pirates exposed the drug racket of the Blitz assembly.

Appearance: https://drive.google.com/open?id=0B_t5M4pSQvAeeTZxQ3VkOGxydDA

Personality: Independently strong and incredibly bold. She appears to hold a grudge against all the new age pirates and doesn't seem to be on great terms with Flint, however he recognizes her power.

Fighting Style: She uses her cyborg arm to fight. The arm is currently kept enclosed in a trophy case in the Warden's office!

Cobalt's Dad

Name: Caiver.B.Grayner (Last name to first name, so first name is Grayner)

Age: 50

Race: Human

Appearance: https://drive.google.com/open?id=0B_t5M4pSQvAeUDJMQ2Q4VF9rXzA

Occupation: Known to be as one of the greatest navigators and perhaps fighters of Calico Jack's time. Was a part of a very strong pirate crew as well, one of the crews that was feared enough to steal the crown from Calico himself. Until he was locked up in Impel Down. Appearance: (For reference, imagine the body type of Benn Beckman, or Silvers Rayleigh) Grayner is about 8 feet tall, and has a large muscle mass, which shows just how powerful he is. Various scars cover his body that show just how much experience he has had over the seas, and the most visible one is the scar that runs vertical over his left eye. His eyes and face are serious, and speak about his personality, though he can be a easygoing person. Has long and dark gray hair that he ties into a pony tail, but one or two long strands tend to fall in front of his face. He has a very rugged and toughened look, from his face to the rest of his body. He doesn't sport a beard or mustache. His prison clothes are all he wears, except for a navy blue sash that is tied around his waist. A thin-brown cigarette is typically in his mouth. Though he may be a bit old, he doesn't show any sign of weakness or bad-aging. Here is a reference Personality: Ravaging the seas for as long as he did, Grayner is not a man to joke around with, though he is a very calm person. Being held in Impel Down for many years, and going through tough experiences, he has developed a serious personality. This won't prevent him from sporting a smirk however, as he does have compassion in his pure heart. Grayner will interact with the players in a serious way, however, he does show respect to pirates who plan to set sail and find their dreams, as he once did as well. At the mention of Calico Jack, memories of various fights and battles against the Pirate King that roared and echoed throughout all 4 seas will rush back to him, and he won't refrain from telling various stories. Grayner has a very strong belief in following one's dreams, and will tell young pirates that anything could be out there. He will tell the players that their dreams are waiting for them, and that the turn of the new golden age of pirates is where they belong.

Abilities: Grayner is a very strong and powerful man. He was the navigator and fighter of a very strong pirate crew, and he is notorious for his strength. His epithet, "The Leviathan", speaks of his abilities, which have been told to be monstrous. His muscle mass shows just how tough he is, but his combat abilities show his experience as well. He is also a very intelligent man, as being a navigator, Grayner carries a smart mind. However, Grayner does feel that he should fight anyone at this point in his life, and will not engage in combat under any circumstance. His notorious fighting abilities have earned him a 400,000,000 beli bounty. In the past, he managed to fight off some of the strongest Marines of Calico's time.

History: Grayner hails from Loguetown in the East Blue, but spent most of his life sailing the seas. He joined the Pirate Crew that he would sail the Grand Line with when he was just 16, which shows that he knows much about the ocean itself. His childhood sweetheart promised Grayner that she would be waiting for him to return back as a notorious pirate, a feat he eventually accomplished. His abilities as a navigator and fighter grew so powerful, he was notorious for them. His crew would go to be one of the strongest in the Grand Line, and Grayner would often find himself entangled in battle with Captain Calico Jack and his crew, though Grayner's crew would never manage to steal the crown from the Pirate King himself, they came to many close occasions where they almost did so. The Marine's top fighters would challenge Grayner's crew, and Grayner would fight them on many occasions, and would always survive. Eventually, Grayner and his crew would fight their last battle, where they would lose to a rival crew, and Grayner's captain was killed on the spot. The crew would disband, and Grayner would travel the world himself, going undercover so as to not cause a commotion. He would meet the love of his life, Michiko, the very same girl that promised that they would meet again when he was a famous pirate, in Loguetown, right back in his hometown. Their first child, Magnus, was born in Loguetown, but after Marines swarm the island looking for Grayner, he decides that his family is not safe here, and they isolate themselves in Orbis Harbour, a small town and island in the West Blue, and this would be where Cobalt is born. Grayner's wife, Michiko, would die of an illness. Grayner raised and taught Cobalt and Magnus on his own, teaching them to not become a pirate, saying that it only leads to eventual death. His true belief, however, is that anyone should follow their dream, and that being a pirate was the best years of his life. Orbis Harbour would eventually swarm with Marines as well, and Grayner would willingly let himself go, since he did not want his two sons to suffer.

Notes:

- The Warden at Impel Down really has it out for Grayner, and hates the pirate as much as possible, because of the trouble that Grayner caused the World Government before.
- Grayner is limited to one cigarette per week by the prison, so his attitude in the prison has been serious and grim for the most part.
- He is held in one of the lower levels in Impel Down, and is respected by the fellow inmates
- A strong believer in dreams and faith, so he won't discourage any players if they tell them they want to be the next Pirate King.
- He does not know that Magnus is dead. He also keeps track of Cobalt's bounty by finding a way to get ahold of the lad's bounty poster whenever a new bounty has arrived.

Katze

Reason for Arrest: Former commander of Ganseki marine base and Blitz Assembly executive. Arrested for infiltrating the Marines and tampering with information and communication.

Appearance: Has Cat-like features, wears squeaky sneakers.

Personality: A coward through and through, Katze does not trust people easily.

Fighting Style: Ate the Neko Neko no Mi Model: Puma. Fights using his claws. However, he is currently tied up in seastone cuffs.

'Snapjaw' Abaddon

Appearance: Huge (10 feet tall), green moray eel fishman with brownish-orange, very long dreadlocks. Often drools, and has bloodshot eyes, though in this thread he will be wearing a special muzzle for most of it because he would eat the other prisoners they threw in with him. He will start out in prison clothes, but eventually change into a sea captain's coat and top hat if released.

<https://drive.google.com/open?id=0Bza4XdMHxSIHMndGWkQ4U3ZGd2c>

Position/Reason for Arrest: Former crime boss and leader of the Tide Syndicate, a group of militant anti-human fishman slavers. Was arrested for causing destruction to Marine ships and attempting to steal the Red Cloud on Keizai. Is kept in one of the higher levels.

Personality: Very cruel, and will lash out at human pirates and attempt to eat them through his prison bars despite being muzzled. He is also gloating and manipulative, sending one of his goons he met here or someone else to beat up fishmen he doesn't like for him while proudly bragging that he personally wouldn't hurt his own kind. He honestly believes that humans are nothing more than sacks of meat for fishmen to kill, enslave, and devour. It is ambiguous as to how he developed such beliefs, but it's rumored that he may have been a Marine in his youth and got betrayed, left to starve, and had to eat one of his fellow soldiers to survive. Others believe he really is just that nasty.

Fighting Style: Used to use his jaws and a seastone sword, but the sword was confiscated and he now is muzzled. In these circumstances, he's had to rely on a modified, more brutal and honorless version of Fishman Karate.

Keymaker

Name: Unknown

Age: Late 50s

Appearance: https://drive.google.com/open?id=0B_t5M4pSQvAeY2JndHlsQVdINUE

Reason for arrest: Assisted in robbing seven banks in different cities. At once.

Tag /u/NPC-San to interact with him when you find him

Innodt Bosses

Vechnov

Former Rear admiral. Arrested for neglecting Marine duties and assisting in illegal activities.

Massof

Subordinate of Ex Shichibukai Christina Reed. Masseuse. Large, muscle man with a hard forehead, but very sensitive personality.

Crystall

Subordinate of Ex Shichibukai Christina Reed. She is a crystal healer, and uses the same for fighting. Very short temper.

Joss

Subordinate of Ex Shichibukai Christina Reed. A chemist whose body has taken a toll from his excessive use of using drugs on himself.

Pintriss

Subordinate of Ex Shichibukai Christina Reed. An expert in acupuncture. Covered in tiny pin holes all over body and face.