

♎ KING ZEUS AKA GODLIKE SAGITTARIUS ♎

This is the very first time I've ever upgraded users with a Sagittarius Sun or Virgo Moon. All of the asteroids upgraded here form exact conjunctions with both the Sun in Sagittarius and the Moon in Virgo. This is why you absolutely cannot ever compare a regular Sagittarius Sun, Virgo Moon to a supernatural one; the regular native definitely doesn't have 50+ powerhouse asteroids right on top of their Sun/Moon; in fact the regular native most likely doesn't even have ONE of these powerhouse asteroids present.

Sagittarius is the sign of liberation and true freedom. They are capable of committing any action, they can truly do whatever they desire. What the other signs dream, the Sagittarius puts into action. They are masters of the physical realm; they are extremely physical in general, they love sex, rough housing, fighting, etc. The animal that represents them is a monstrous centaur; half man, half beast. Thus, Sagittarius has to fight between their lower and higher selves. They can be extremely primal, savage and downright wild. Seriously, they are extremely wild. They will surprise you. Don't be fooled: these are not just happy go lucky, buddy buddy, friendly people that most astrologers make them out to be. Yes, they are very optimistic and confident adventurers with genuine faith in themselves but they are actually very harsh, critical, direct people with a sense of brutality.

They are very good at criticizing others and this is due to many reasons. They are also more than bold enough to do just that, right to the enemy's face. Did I mention that the centaur they represent is always armed with a bow and arrow? They are prepared to launch severe attacks and take big chances at all times. This is a very predatory sign. They can and will trample all over the weak without giving a fuck. They are very insensitive as well: they can handle the criticism and scrutiny of others very, very well. These are thick skinned, tough, optimistic, athletic, physical people. Gemini and Scorpio master the realm of the mind, Sagittarius masters the physical realm. There are many bodybuilders and heavy sports enthusiasts among them. Sagittarius also has an amazing ability to always look at things from a big picture point of view.

^ Susanoo & Yamata-Orochi, both placed in Gemini, Capricorn, Scorpio, Aries, Leo, Sagittarius, Pisces and Virgo in all charts in this project - this also includes Yamata-Orochi conjunct Ascendant, Midheaven, Descendant & Immum Coeli many times over in all charts... speaking of Yamata-Orochi, FBG DUCK... A Sagittarius Sun, Virgo Moon native, was actually born with YAMATA-OROCHI in Sagittarius conjunct SUN in Sagittarius...that is major. Obviously, this project has that + way more... Tyrannosaurus in Sagittarius conjunct Sagittarius Sun (Willie Bosket the legendary criminal had that), Daitarabotchi in Sagittarius conjunct Sagittarius Sun, Spartacus in Sagittarius conjunct Sagittarius Sun, Storm in Sagittarius conjunct Sagittarius Sun, etc... all included...

Only Aquarius can match Sagittarius in terms of this bird's eye view of life/big picture perspective. They are always thinking of the future and live their lives accordingly. Sagittarius is ruled by Jupiter AKA Zeus, the Nymph chasing God of Thunder... thus, they are prone to God complexes and things of that nature. They feel godlike, and they are indeed godlike in many ways. They can be larger than life and grandiose like Chinese Dragons. Like Zeus himself, they are very sexual and prone to many sexual conquests. This same godlike quality makes them very judgmental; this is the fire sign with wisdom and knowledge. All Sagittarians complain and judge. Sagittarius is also the sign of casual sex. These people can rack up bodies and gain plenty of partners; they have great passion, audacity, bravery and charisma as well. They are one of the most sexually powerful signs. Their personalities are very impressive and 'complete'... They are extremely uninhibited and never shy; even if they seem unfriendly and secretive, they are still extremely wild at the core. Like Scorpions, Sagittarians are often attracted to the occult.

Adding the Virgo Moon - is the perfect way to balance out all of the Sagittarius and Pisces energy inside this project. The Scorpio Moon that I've been using for a while and still use in my projects, is extremely powerful of course, but the Virgo Moon has its own very powerful advantages that no other Moon sign does. They have their feet on the ground and are extremely stable, realistic, hard driving, critical and level headed to the extent that the Virgo Moon is actually the absolute best Moon for a Pisces to have; Virgo Moon completely annihilates all of Pisces and Sagittarius' weaknesses. Scorpio provides Sagittarius and Pisces with raw power, intensity, regenerative ability and strength... but Virgo provides them with godlike practicality, focus, efficiency, intellect, cunning, criticality and authority. They are exceedingly sharp tongued and skilled in communication: this should never be underestimated. Gordon Ramsey and NFL's Richard Sherman are two notoriously sharp tongued representatives of this sign but all Virgo Moons embody that.

gets hit full force by another player and eats it "THAT'S IT?! THAT'S IT?! YOU SUCK!!! HA HA..... YOU SO WEAK!" - 4:32 of second link

For the record, Richard Sherman graduated from Stanford with an exceedingly high GPA; another major indicator of his Virgo Moon

*This also has 50+ powerful asteroids placed on the 8th house Sagittarius Sun, the Scorpio Ascendant, the 8th house Virgo Moon and the 8th house Scorpio Moon. These asteroids include: Tyrannosaurus, Walpurga, Andrejka, Izanaki, Onizaki, 1996 SZ4, Gojira, Yamata-Orochi, Izanami, Odin, James Bond, Ignatius, Storm, Cuyo, Standing Bear, Daitarabotchi, etc... Sun in Sagittarius: The Known Universe and The Undiscovered Country, the Professor of High Adventure and the Super Crusader of Quests and Faith

Sagittarius is the Traveler, the Truth Seeker, the Scholar-Lecturer, the Philosopher-Prophet, and the Professor of High Adventure. Possessed by the energy of a wild horse, prone to taking off on wild escapades, and always looking towards new frontiers, Sagittarius is the sign most likely to go on long distance trips. Sometimes these trips will be geographical in nature but other times they will be across religious, spiritual, or moral philosophies. Oftentimes they will be across both. When Sagittarius takes its desire to seek the truth to extremes it goes from being the Philosopher to being the Fanatic, from being the Professor of High Adventure to the Super Soldier Purveyor of Religious Warfare.

The Sun in Sagittarius nature is one of expansion, and their eyes are often optimistically fixed on a future goal. They're global citizens, here to sample many tastes and cultures, which can keep them constantly on the move. A bored "Sadge" is a rare sight, since they'll break free of any relationship or situation that starts to squash their legendary enthusiasm. The Sagittarius makes for a fun friend that knows all the best ethnic restaurants and can stay out 'til the cows come home. There are times when they are shockingly blunt. It's unnerving to be the target of one of their direct hits, but it is easily forgiven if accepted as just another fiery arrow of Sagittarian truth.

The same mind that shows tactlessness can be a beacon of light in confusing times. Leave it to a Sagittarius to step into a messy tangle and sum up the situation with blinding clarity. They'll be willing to say the truth when all others hide in confusion. This makes them invaluable friends that can guide you back to the clear path when you need honesty rather than enablers. There's a notable physicality to the Sun in Sagittarius that gets them involved in vigorous athletics and bold travel-adventures. They bring this flexibility to the bedroom and this lusty, anything-goes attitude can cause them to take a walk on the wild side.

BASIC INFORMATION ON VIRGO MOON 🌙♍

Under the influence of the Virgo Moon, manifestations of envy, hatred and cruelty are very likely. Their feelings are under control, they have no unnecessary thoughts or emotions- only complete concentration on what really matters. Their sober calculations and sharp accuracy guarantees success. They are very irritable, critical and completely unrestrained in their harsh assessments. There is a constant striving for development and improvement. They have the ability to successfully assimilate and process enormous amounts of information. Virgo Moons easily slide down to petty revenge, quarreling and grumbling.

Formidable Virgo Moon natives: Willem Dafoe, DMX, Sean Connery, Jack Nicholson, Gordon Ramsay, John Travolta, Richard Sherman, Nikki Minaj, Trippie Redd, Steve Irwin, Johnny Knoxville, Berleezy, Serial killer John Loubert (Moon Persona), Serial killer Carroll Cole (Moon Persona: he killed 18+), Hulk Hogan, James Franco, Uma Thurman (Moon Persona: Kill Bill actress), Edmund Kemper (Moon Persona), Jared Loughner, Genghis Khan, Samuel L. Jackson, Anton LaVey

Mars in Sagittarius: Raging Horse Chariot of Fire (an EXTREMELY strong Mars: this is placed in all charts including the Mars Persona - like every other placement here, this Mars is PACKED with 50+ power house asteroids)

Mars in Sagittarius is the symbol of great and uncontrollable energy that needs to be directed and controlled as a herd of fiery horses. Mars in Sagittarius natives can only be satisfied with something "big". The sexual life of people with Mars in Sagittarius depends on how they control their overflowing libido. When they want sex, they want a lot of it and they want it right now.

These people are very adventuresome: they love travel, the outdoors, and are restless and energetic. They often feel they are invincible and take high risks, as Sagittarius is the sign of gambling. Their optimism and confidence many times bails them out of even drastic situations. When sublimated, energies are focused into higher education and learning in general. These people can be life-long students. Mars in Sagittarius gives natural athletic ability and a love of sports. They sometimes use drugs to expand their minds. They can often be the types to experiment with all kinds of psychedelic substances. They are always looking for a bigger trip. For many of them though, a plane ride is good enough.

They are direct, blunt in their communications, opinionated and have strong beliefs. Most mars in Sagittarius people take sex as a sport. Those with Mars in Sagittarius tend to be wildly adventurous. As long as their heart desires it, they will do it at some point. They are generally very masculine and often brutish. They have a very raw untamed essence at times. But then at other times, they seem very genteel, worldly, wise.

They are very confident and optimistic. They love traveling, learning and expanding their minds. They love to talk about what they know. They are very passionate about their opinions and experiences. They love sharing their knowledge and “enlightening” people. They love showing people things and teaching people. They are very confident in their beliefs and opinions, but they also love to learn and be taught. They are both humble and confident. They tend to live non-conventional lives. They like forging their own path. They are often extremely lucky. They’re always getting lucky breaks.

They can be very social. They LOVE a good party. They will usually party hard and often. They are often the life of the party. Everyone will probably gravitate to them and they will always have a good time. Sometimes they can party a little too hard though. These types will try anything and do anything. In party mode they sometimes lose their legendary good judgment. These are the types to meet someone at a party and go home with them on the same night. They are often the types to wake up in a strange place having no idea how they got there. No one parties harder than Mars in Sagittarius natives. But they can also be the lone wolf type who travels alone and lives off the land.

They are always on some great journey, a higher spiritual mission that transcends conventions or rules. They make their own rules and strictly abide by them. Whether or not it fits into the constructs of mainstream society is not their concern. They are highly moral but they create their own morality and answer to their own individual God. Mars in Sagittarius is very masculine. They are often healthy, muscular, meaty, hairy, and manly men. Mars in Sagittarius should try hard to eat hearty meals but also get a lot of exercise. They are exploding with energy and are best when they put it to good use. They do great in rough, contact sports, like rugby, soccer, boxing, football and wrestling.

Sagittarius VS Scorpio

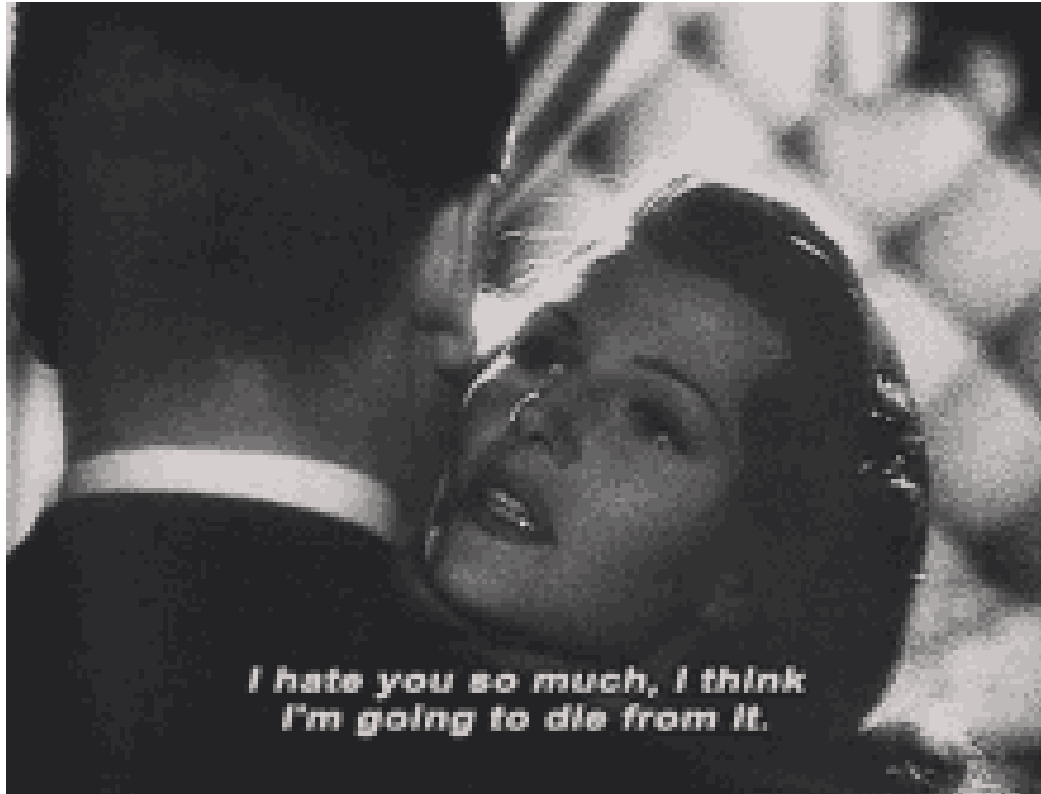

(A great way to gain insight on Sagittarius is by analyzing the intimate compatibility between Scorpio and Sagittarius lovers)

Scorpio Ike Turner, famed musician and ex-husband of Sagittarius rock star Tina Turner, gave the Sagittarius-Scorpio love match a bad name. Yet, his rabid desire to control and possess the wild Sag typifies the downfall of many Sagittarius Scorpio relationships. The Sag is wild at heart and must be free to gallivant, yet the fire of Sagittarius so enflames Scorpio that the stinger wants to maintain it all for itself. This could end badly, but it doesn't have to.

THE GOOD

The Sagittarius is known for its bluntness. Natives of this sign are harshly honest. While this could upset many other signs, it attracts the Scorpio lover. Scorpions hate fakers, flattery, contrivances and other attempts at hiding behind facades. So, the stripped down truth according to Sag is not only welcomed by Scorpio, but celebrated. Sags are also full of mirth and optimism, offering a counterpoint to the depressive emotions often suffered by the Scorpio. While Sags have gusto and can be initiators and trailblazers, they are also adaptable and don't mind compromising with a powerful Scorpion, who loves to be in charge and set the pace of the relationship. While both Scorpio and Sagittarius are incredibly brainy and bond over philosophical ideas and ideals, Scorpio's energy thrives in the realm of the mind while Sagittarius masters the realm of experience. Sag lovers take Scorpions out of their heads and into the world at large so they can experience life up close, take risks and live in the face of the wind. Scorpio will find all this intoxicating and exciting.

THE BAD

Sagittarius people, wise as they are, can have a very playful, joker side. Scorpio aren't known for humor and may be unamused by this side of Sagittarius. However, the Scorpio can tolerate this. What may really doom this love match is the fact that Sagittarius is really meant to be a tourist through life. They are perpetually roving creatures made to explore the globe and indulge in a variety of people, from all walks of life. They will need more distance and freedom than most Scorpio lovers can allow. A Scorpio in love is intensely jealous and wants to mark the lover as theirs - and theirs alone. In the end, Sagittarius will simply be too elusive and the need to constantly chase, hold and chase again will send Scorpio into a monstrous frenzy that can bring out the worst in both.

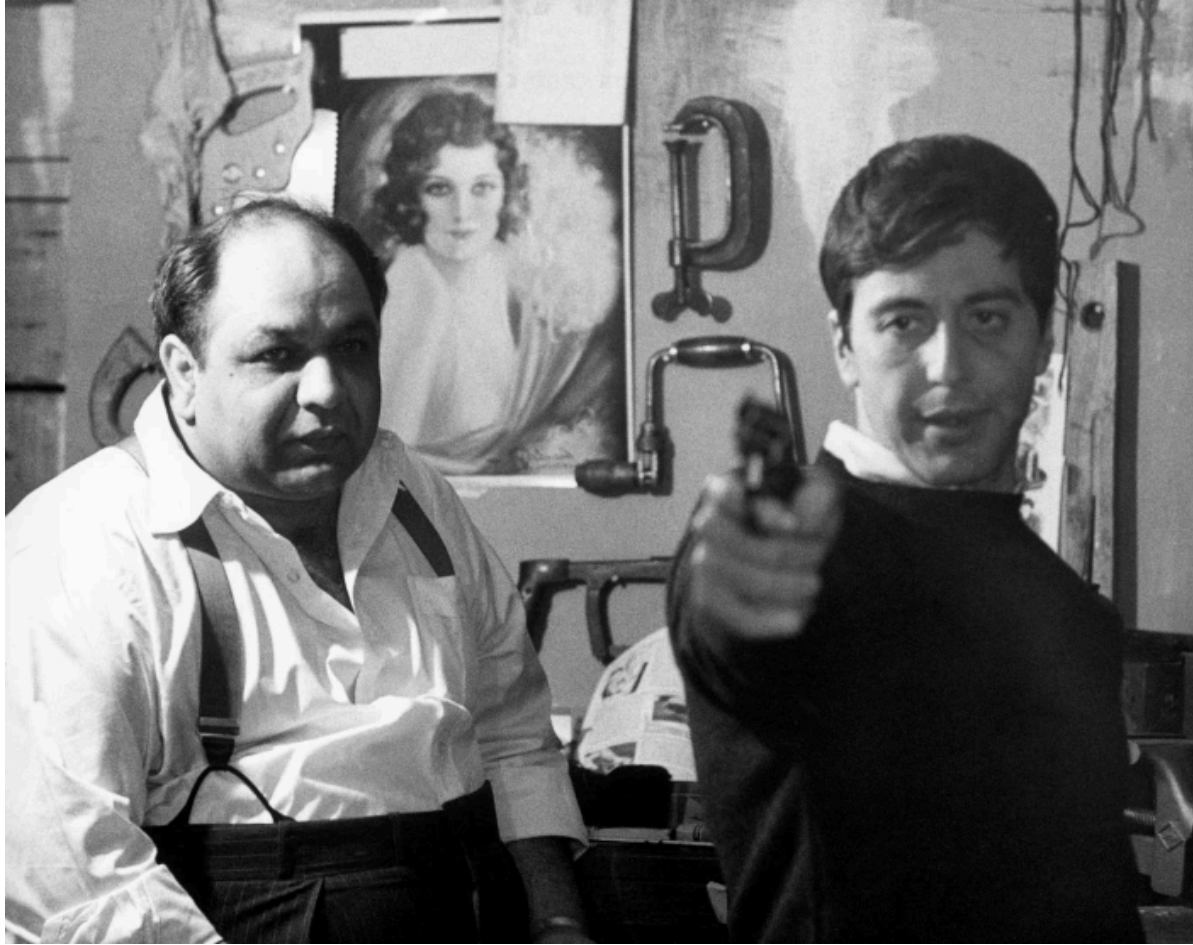

THE INTIMATE

Fire signs and Water signs mix very well in bed. So, just as the sex between Scorpio and Leo is smoldering, so too is the intermingling of the Sagittarius and Scorpio. Sagittarius people are natural athletes who possess strength, stamina and rhythm in bed. Both Scorpio and Sagittarius possess strong primal natures; the bedroom is a wilderness for that primality to be explored. Love making between them could go on for hours, with Sagittarius encouraging Scorpio to be as free and exhibitionist as possible. Sagittarius lovers do not hold back and Scorpio will finally have a lover that pushes to the edge and over it. Scorpio will explore all the carnal energies with Sagittarius - and the passion will be so great that the Scorpio lover may not even notice the exchange lacked an emotional journey. The Scorpio's emotions will be stimulated enough for the both of them.

♐ Sun in Sagittarius when combined with Moon in Virgo ♍

The combination of Sagittarius Sun and Virgo Moon produces a good deal of intellectual power, and with it, the ability to bring generalizations down to details and specific plans. This position blends the personal dash, optimism, enthusiasm and directness of manner of Sagittarius, with the intelligence, analytical insight and discrimination of Virgo. Consequently, this combination produces a lot of achievers and outstanding people. You have an excellent mind, capable of handling broad concepts and minute details with equal ability.

Your well-developed mental powers permit you to move from broad concepts down to technical details assuring versatility and adaptability in business or in a profession. Realism tinged with a critical analysis, romanticism without being too impractical, these are your gifts. You see clearly without the help of rose-colored glasses, and you relate what you see and know with honesty and a well-defined authority. No one has to guess where you stand on any issue. You can be pushy, but usually not to the extent that you offend. Rather, your manner can be described as diplomatic and charming, but still there is the authority of a director or tutor. It's sometimes necessary to guard against a tendency to be somewhat impulsive.

NOTE: Edmund Kemper, Nikki Minaj, DJ Khaled, Ronnie from Jersey Shore, FBG Duck, Samuel L. Jackson, the YouTuber Berleezy and the late DMX are all members of this combination

♐ Sagittarius Sun ☉ — ♍ Virgo Moon ☾

You are extremely perceptive. One of your greatest gifts is intuition. You are aware of when it is prudent to take a risk or grab an advantage, as well as when it is smart to remain cool. Your success is assured because of your wisdom, vigilance, and good judgment. Another gift is persuasiveness and you are charming and soft-spoken. You know precisely how to get to the spirit. You are an outstanding salesman and a convincing leader because of your way with words. An example of a very developed Sagittarius-Virgo is Winston Churchill.

You are a lot more reserved and earthy than your fellow Sagittarians. You favor looking before you leap. There is nothing casual or lighthearted about you. Your Virgo inner self provides you with a fixed sense of obligation. Very early in life you most likely had to take on a lot of responsibility, which brought out your clever, pragmatic outlook. You have a very understated, almost wily way about you. You can always spot dishonesty, and your aptitude to sense other people's weaknesses is awesome. You have a restive, autonomous, and unruly spirit even though you prefer to work and live in a conventional lifestyle.

Your emotional character is a bit reserved and uncertain even though you are just as fervent and daring as your fellow Sagittarians. You may build up vague feelings of inadequacy or despair if you feel you cannot handle the burden of your consummate and aggressive personality. Do not put yourself down. You have astonishing powers of scrutiny and an excellent intelligence. Sagittarius provides you the skill to handle the abstract and philosophical, while Virgo gives you the ability to set those ideas on a more realistic plateau.

A good example of the versatile and intellectual Sagittarius-Virgo is Spinoza, the philosopher. You set exceptionally high, nearly perfectionist goals for yourself and you are never happy with being second best. When you find you cannot meet the demands you set for yourself, bad temper and nervous tension often come about. Your frustrations might be released on the people closest to you. This includes your sarcasm, which can border on malice at times. Do not let your loyalty to work become a compulsion even though your sense of duty is commendable.

♐ Sagittarius Sun ☉ — ♏ Scorpio Rising ☆

It is unlikely that you have learned yourself in the descriptions of Sagittarius offered by astrological literature. Ascendant Scorpio makes you much more passionate, tense and warlike than the ordinary Sagittarius. You are a materialist and a bit stingy by nature. Financial security is very important for you, and you are afraid to get into debt. You are very talented, know yourself the price and take care that your work is recognized and appreciated. You head off and into work, and in entertainment and in everything are prone to excess.

You have strong likes and dislikes. You have a very developed ability to criticize, you are sarcastic and ruthless towards opponents. You have a rich imagination, impatient and quick-tempered, although your anger does not last long. Strong will does not allow you to retreat in the face of obstacles. Your relatives and family are interested in your well-being and do everything in their power to support you.

Dark Side of the Combination

There are few obstacles before you on the road to success, because you have a secret weapon, so secret that even you can not find it. You are very proud of any power that you manage to get, and you probably ruined the lives of several people to gain influence. You are sarcastic, cutting and selfish. You also have a frightening ability to penetrate the thoughts of other people, while remaining aloof, and retaining an impenetrable expression.

You always want to win. Your diabolical mind is capable of spinning unthinkable intrigues, and it's easier to get the tank off the road than to talk you out of something. In love, you resort to unlawful methods and use intimidation where there is no seduction. You not only deprive others of the presence of the spirit, but you yourself are frightened of your unbridled emotions. In the role of a lover, you do not fall for flattery, are critical, jealous, act as an owner and are inclined to manipulate a partner. If you want something, you will always find a way to get it.

Love and Family

You express your emotions through sex. In a romantic relationship, you suffer from uncontrollable jealousy, although you love passionately and faithfully. If your sex life does not satisfy you, it will be very difficult for you to fill this gap in your life. You probably do not marry more than once, and this combination of signs gives many children, including twins. Your children will marry early, and with one of them you will have some secret sorrows. In nothing else you can not find the same pleasure as in love.

Career and Money

You are ambitious and with time, no doubt, will achieve a good position in life. In your youth, your life path was not strewn with roses, but in your mature years you will achieve prosperity. You can succeed by traveling, legal issues, marriage, and also with the help of relatives. You will have two sources of income and two completely different occupations. Your profession can be connected with military or naval affairs, government service, as well as with accounting and banking. It does not matter which way in life you choose, you will succeed in any field.

Sagittarius Descendant/Fearsome Foe v3

(Haven't put this in a public project in a very long time - this NEWEST VERSION is like the Jormungandr File Descendant on steroids)

NOTE: Personally, I've been using this descendant for years but upgrading it more and more over time; this is the most powerful, refined version of it yet. Interestingly, the main three girls I'm currently intimate with are all Sun in Sagittarius with Venus in Scorpio. You WILL attract Sagittarius doms due to this descendant. This has Tyrannosaurus conjunct Descendant and much, much more.

The 'DESCENDANT' in the chart is extremely important. Few things the Descendant controls: your enemies/allies & how they treat you, who you are AS AN ENEMY, how you treat others, what you do to others, what others do to you, who you are in relationships, what you love, what you are a magnet for, the people you seek out, the people you easily get along with & relate to, what you want in relationships, the types of interactions you have with others, the types of people you are attracted to, the types of people you unconsciously attract, what people bring to you, who your partner is, the type of partner you attract, the position you unconsciously put yourself in, how competitive you are, in what ways you are competitive, what you do to/how you treat or seduce love interests & potential love interests, how you experience every relationship, who you become as soon as you are in the presence of another person, how you feel pressured to act, what people expect of you & how they expect you to behave, how you treat your enemies, what relationships are to you, what relationships do to you, the types of friends & allies you attract/have, who you are in society/public, your relationship with society/the public itself, how you are viewed by the public in general, how you feel about other people in general & lastly-- what others bring out of you.

Sagittarius in the 7th + Sagittarius Descendant

(IN ALL CHARTS)

'This is a strong, accurate, fearless & fast warrior-- who causes his enemies to feel an overwhelming fear.'

The seventh house in Sagittarius means that these people tend to give great importance to the selection of a partner on the principle of high ideality. Their connections with society are stable & harmonious, and they usually choose or end up with partners that are pleasant, promising and reliable. In general, all their connections — from family to political — are formed successfully, although they are prone to second marriages. If they need to part with someone, then they try not to burn the bridge-- he knows how to save a pleasant relationship for later. This person knows the value of keeping someone around for the future. In the partnership and partner relations, he tries to lead the others behind him-- even if it requires him to take on a larger share of their workload. In the company of others, he rejoices-- has good times, laughs, & pleasures.

People with the 7th house in Sagittarius are usually law-abiding, but when the situation does not suit them at all, they tend to change the laws themselves. This is a strong, accurate, fearless & fast warrior, which causes enemies to feel an overwhelming fear. At low development, he is inclined to praise himself by exaggerated triumphs over enemies. His enemies, although numerous-- still, rarely hit the target.. only succeeding in temporarily harming the person; while he recovers he not only strengthens his defenses, but plans a vicious retaliation. As a partner or ally, he is cheerful, pleasant, optimistic & blunt, sometimes very much so. It is difficult not to miss him once the relationship ends.

EVERYTHING BELOW IS ALSO IN THIS PROJECT...

As always - this doc doesn't even cover 10% of what's actually involved in this massive project

Overpowered Saturn

NOTE: Do NOT compare this Saturn to the one in Ancient Ring of Saturn or any other previous Saturn. The Saturn used here in this Sagittarius project is absolutely state of the art and far beyond godlike.

Saturn in Scorpio

Saturn in Scorpio is impatient, perceptive, competent & ruthless. They demand a lot from themselves and from those around them. They can be so intense that it can be overwhelming to those who are not as directed as they are. Full of willpower and energy, they are so determined to meet their goals it is hard for them to remain calm. They are not the type to stop and smell the roses. Instead of going gung ho for their goals like their Aries brethren, however, they are usually more subtle and calculating.

Saturn in Scorpio can be very secretive. When hurt, they can be, and usually are-- completely unforgiving. They don't like to be treated unfairly & you can be absolutely sure that they will not tolerate disrespect of any kind. They are cunning, resentful, jealous, & possessive. These people are very shrewd and have a need to come out on top of any type of deal. Like Pluto Suns, they are always trying to keep the upper hand in every situation. Scorpio Saturn keeps their motivations hidden deeply.

They often seek power through covert means & may dabble in the occult. They work very diligently to achieve self-control, like all Scorpio. Passionate and intense, Saturn in Scorpio is capable of experiencing both deep passion & deep suffering. Struggling through their issues will help them deal with their emotional nature. Scorpio Saturn is resourceful, but they can be extremely vindictive or withdrawn. They must learn to be calm, efficient and thorough.

Those with Saturn in Scorpio can be very self-disciplined. They have executive ability and are perceptive and extremely capable. They may have psychic ability. People may find them difficult to understand because of their reserved exterior and secretiveness. Their mind may be mechanically oriented and they are resourceful, even under the most adverse circumstances- they remain enduring and persistent.

The action and energy of Mars is combined with the forethought of Saturn in a most wonderful combination. Whatever you do is done with intensity. On the negative side, though, there is danger of stubbornness, revenge, lack of forgiveness, resentment, and ruthlessness.

You're creepy. Feared by the masses. Trusting only a few souls in the world. Keeping yourself locked up. Self imprisonment. You're an authority on death, sex, deep exchanges and the taboo. A pimp. Sexual power dynamics with authority figures.

Sun in the 8th house

(This project gives 8th house Sun in Sagittarius upgrades in all charts)

Natives who have their natal Sun in the 8th house are illuminating the obscure meanings of death, sex, and the occult. No matter what their Sun sign is, they become quite Scorpionic in their character, have deep desires and a very strong will. For them, power is very important while sex is a mystical experience of death and rebirth. This Sun placement creates an urge to go deep into the mysteries of life and death. Such individuals are very interested in discovering the meanings of life, constantly seeking for answers on whether death is the final destination or we continue towards somewhere else. These interests make them attracted to the occult, and they can reach tremendous knowledge about such kinds of issues. Observing the big picture of how life functions makes them difficult to be satisfied with common experiences and everyday reality. Nevertheless, this placement attracts a lot of supernatural experiences, and many of them are permanently transforming them. Everything that is unexplored or taboo for the masses, fascinates and attracts them.

This is also a reason for the masses to slightly fear them, or consider them morbid and dark. A person with the Sun in the 8th house will live many lives in one. (Like the Chinese Dragon, it is like they are living out 10 lifetimes in one incarnation) These lives can be experienced either one after the other, or even simultaneously. It feels like being a protagonist in different movies, and because every movie has different surroundings and concepts, the native is a totally different person in each one. While transcending from one life to the other, the person can experience powerful dissolutions of his ego, and each death of his temporary persona simulates real death. An 8th house Sun person has many ways of simulating death, in order to get acquainted with the biggest mystery and prepare himself to experience it. Other people might think that such natives are not afraid of death. People with the Sun in the house of death, are either consciously or unconsciously following the eastern orthodox proverb:

“Die before you die, so that you don’t die when you die.”

They are very magnetic and seductive; their sexuality is as intense as a Scorpio’s. Such people feel like becoming gods through sexual activities and also create a God/Goddess of their partner. For them, eroticism is art, expression, and meditation. Their bed is an altar, and every sexual act is a ritual. The 8th house is an open gate to the other realms, and when one’s Sun resides in this house, it can grant him psychic abilities. The native is very perceptive and his intuition is usually right. They can read people through peering in their eyes, and are very difficult to trick or swindle due to strong defenses. The Sun in the 8th house makes a person suspicious, with paranoiac tendencies. Their emotions can reach enormous heights, and so can their orgasms in sex.

In Depth Information on the Scorpio Moon Upgrades

The moon is one of the Anima's attributes in the chart, it thus informs about the mother, or the native's wife/lover, manifesting qualities in the colors of the occupied sign.

This position gives an undeniable charisma and magnetism to the natives, a cold blood, a strength and a psychic power higher than normal which often allows them to impose themselves easily, it is extremely difficult to influence or impress them in any way. They have an increased receptivity to emotions and feelings: they seek intensity, depth, in all things. This is a "violent" Anima; passionate, excessive, jealous, possessive, mysterious, complex, very carnal ... but with an advanced mastery and self-control.

The Moon in Scorpio does not support half-measures, the natives tend to always ask for more, to want the exceptional. They create in their surroundings, without always being aware of it, a permanent state of power relations, for them social relations often come down to a question of dominant / dominated. The natives constantly need to test others with acid spikes, it's also their way to reassure themselves and bring intensity, to feel alive. They are, in general, continuously in an aspect of attraction / repulsion, their strong personality never leaves anyone indifferent, either one adores them or hates them.

^ Bruce Lee had asteroid Bandersnatch conjunct Mars at a 2 degree orb + 3 doses of Bandersnatch-Sun; remember, Bandersnatch was the unkillable, unstoppable monster from Lewis Carroll's books; Bruce was also a Sun and Moon in Scorpio, although in different charts

These natives generally have a gift for perceiving situations and "feeling" others, they are perceptive, they know how to detect wonderfully what one is trying to hide from them, they have an intuitive and intelligent perception of the human soul's functioning which is highly developed, and also all the distrust and mistrust that goes with it. The natives with Moon in Scorpio are "extremists", they will not tolerate the banality of existence, they seek a life at 100 miles per hour, emotionally full and very intense. Sometimes this quest can bring these natives far away, in very far away lands, or to the depths of human nature, but they need a certain suffering, a certain pain, to be reborn from their ashes.

Scorpio Moons can be very impulsive and have primitive and powerful sexual instincts, which they will need to translate into their sexuality with their partner, and they may have very important needs in these areas. They will want to keep control of themselves and others, which can easily engage them in games of power and domination, both in love and sex. They can easily be excessive and will not do things in half measure, they will sometimes love and hate at the same time, they will need this excessiveness, these passionate commitments. This moon can remain quite elusive emotionally, having important parts of secrecy and mystery, which is what will make all its charm, but this same secrecy can destabilize others, sometimes frighten them.

They love for others to answer them, but they do not like to answer others. He will not just be passionate; he will be ardent. Extreme passions & hatreds are common with Scorpio Moon. They have the most intense emotions out of all Moon placements. In fact, they are regenerated by intensity while many others are drained by it. All of this is multiplied times two when the Moon is present in the 8th House.*

Mars in Scorpio Upgrades

(MARS PARALLEL ALL MAIN PLANETS AND ANGLES IN ALL CHARTS)

Mars in Scorpio natives love challenges. Whatever they decide to do is done with every ounce of gusto they can muster. They have the ability to truly focus and have a strong willpower to accomplish anything. They make formidable opponents, though they are quiet and subtle, not loud and brash. On the surface they are calm and collected. Below the surface, they may be a seething pool of emotion. They don't let others see this side of them very often. Mars in Scorpio has the ability to exploit those around them because of their talents of seeing through the facade to what lies beneath.

Scorpio Mars likes to test themselves and others. They can be provocative in a subtle, controlled manner. Those with low self-esteem can become rather loathsome. They turn their self-hatred outward and manipulate/destroy others to feel better. Unlike Libra Mars, Scorpio Mars knows that life isn't fair and accepts it for what it is. Mars in Scorpio harbors powerful desires and emotions. They have a very high energy level. They are strong, efficient, self-reliant and self-disciplined. They have a strong sense of purpose. They are slow to anger, but when they do, watch out. They get even in a calm, rather frightening manner. They are proud, strong-willed, and dignified. They are known for a long memory and they don't forgive when hurt. They may be fascinated with the occult, death and dangers.

They are very passionate and sensual. They are attractive to the opposite sex no matter what they look like physically. Their personal magnetism is powerful. Scorpio Mars is intense, and this can be too much for some people. Sex with them is an all-encompassing experience; it is intensely physical, emotional and erotic. They can be a bit obsessive, and may be attracted to the darker side of sex. When attracted to someone, Mars in Scorpio man will do everything in his power to seduce his love interest. It is likely that their dark side can come out when in love – they will chase their person of interest and be highly vindictive against anybody else who might show interest in them. They tend to obsess over a person and may even manipulate them into liking them back. They will exude a sexual, mysterious, and magnetic aura when chasing someone. This is definitely one of the most passionate and intense placements there is, it is almost animalistic.

These people can see through the weaknesses of others. They make for deadly enemies and have a strong sense of justice. They are vindictive and if someone wrongs them or a loved one, they will exact their revenge, even if it takes years. They do not forget an injustice. They are not ones to openly express their anger, but rather they smolder. This position gives a strong talent for concentration, focus and for meditation. They are natural mages and many have a talent for black magic that is inborn, from previous lives. The sex drive is very strong and pronounced.

Their energies are focused on passion, spirituality, and occult subjects. When pushed, their anger can be like an overturned wasp's nest. They are possessive and jealous in their affections. They demand total devotion and loyalty in a love relationship. If this is betrayed, they can become deadly. Their emotions are very deep and intense. Those born with Mars in Scorpio will be the strong silent type, the dark horse. They are mysterious and intimidating. They are very private, confident, and sexy. They are very secretive. There is always something bubbling under the surface that you will NEVER know about. They may seem very shy and quiet. They are usually loners. They don't do well in packs.

They are very in touch with their dark side and use it to get what they want. They possess a lot of power and as a result they don't attract a lot of competition. They are very intimidating and people are usually too scared to even go NEAR them. Less sharp people may see their quietness as weakness and may poke the tiger. They often attract less intuitive types who only see them for who they are on the surface. They sense some power but they don't believe it so they test them and test them until they finally experience their extreme sting. They always regret it.

Mars in Scorpio is the most aggressive Scorpio position possible. If you think it hurts when a Sun in Scorpio comes back for their revenge, you will not at all be prepared for what a Mars in Scorpio man has to bring. They are out for blood and blood only.

Mars in Scorpio Summary

People with Mars in Scorpio are pleased to be able to hide their power and show it to the world at the right moment. They have a strong sense of survival and sexuality, and they are well aware of how these two instincts intertwine. This sense makes them very attractive. Other people are never indifferent towards them – others always notice them, whether the Scorpio Mars is trying to get their reaction or not. As if they strongly and automatically provoke the most basic hopes and fears in people. They do not try to get anything or do anything if they do not really want it. Their challenging aura, whether active or passive, will always attract great loyalty or great hostility, nothing in between.

Legendary Fixed Star Antares Upgrades

(Antares placed in multiple signs + Antares parallel all planets and angles)

Antares makes people tough, belligerent and pugnacious. This is an important star for military personnel, it is said to convey mental alertness, strategic ability and courage to make daredevils. With the legendary star Antares, it's easy to see why the natives have such a difficult time with it. Antares works at the root chakra, survival level... If a lioness kills a poor sweet innocent Bambi of a deer to feed her cubs, we don't say she is cruel, callous or a psychopath. She is just operating in survival mode in order to protect her family. Antares has a very beastly, animalistic side and must learn to harness these primal urges. He is most often triggered by opposing royal star Aldebaran. Through facing his nemeses, Antares is pressured to engage his logical, solar mind. This is the battle that lies at the heart of the Scorpion. Aldebaran could just be a little too good to be true, and maybe just a tad too worthy.

Aldebaran is "the enlightened", but Antares' purpose is to remind Aldebaran that he isn't quite a god yet, and to keep in touch with some of the harsh realities of human life. This might burst Aldebaran's balloon somewhat, but that's Antares' job, smashing the good guys to dust. So...Antares will always play the bad guy, will always take the rap, will tend to play out the collective's demons for them... Antares is the man or woman you love to hate. Antares will gladly play the red-eyed monster in the corner with a long black cape. Ok, maybe that's way too obvious a stereotype... but if you look at an Antares rising, they most likely really do have a wicked grin or a devilish shine in their eyes.

Legendary Fixed Star Aldebaran Upgrades

(Aldebaran placed in multiple signs + Aldebaran parallel all planets and angles - FOR THE RECORD THIS SAGITTARIUS PROJECT IN PARTICULAR ACTUALLY HAS ALDEBARAN CONJUNCT DESCENDANT AS WELL)

Aldebaran seems to have gained a better reputation than his opposite Antares. But really, Aldebaran and Antares are two sides of the same coin. Aldebaran actually has a more stormy reputation than one would imagine. This is because the left eye, Ain, forms part of the notorious Hyades star cluster. This bunch of rainy stars splatter across the bulls face. Aldebaran, though, is the bull's right eye. Its status as a raging red giant ensures its position as the Alpha male of the bunch. For under the attractive, velvet Taurus glove is a fist of steel. Aldebaran is a ferocious charmer. Peacocking his power with fine clothes like those Hip-hop stars decked in gold "bling", driving their puffed-out chariots with the scary bull bars on the front. They promise much but they also deliver, this could be the best sex you ever had. Sensual, indulgent, the Aldebaran lover knows just what buttons to press. Women with this placement will be robust and earthy, not dainty little cherubs. They will ride you till you are both saddle sore, and they can keep going, and going and going... Rawhide indeed.

Aldebaran, unlike its opposite Antares, can get away with all manner of evils, even though they are both just as extreme as each other. The difference is that Aldebaran knows how to play the game. God is on his side. Aldebaran can charm the doorman into turning a blind eye. They have a non-stick veneer and any criticism just slides off them. Aldebaran can get away with murder because they come across as the knight in shining armour and saviour even if some are quite ghastly underneath.

Aldebaran Keywords

Lusty, lecherous, lovely, rich, sensual, smooth-talkers, materialistic, businessmen, winners, insatiable, indulgent, romantic, seducers, pleasure seekers, hedonists, idolizers, textural, lush, dashing, knights-in-shining armor, saviors, robust, strong, meaty, juicy, tough, bold, cheeky, macho, old-fashioned, classic, chivalrous, charmers, diplomats, harmony, earthy, fertile, aesthetic, luxurious, golden, lucky escapes, shining through, artistic, fashionable, iconic, beautiful, musical, sultry voices, softly spoken, strong/silent type, butter-wouldn't-melt

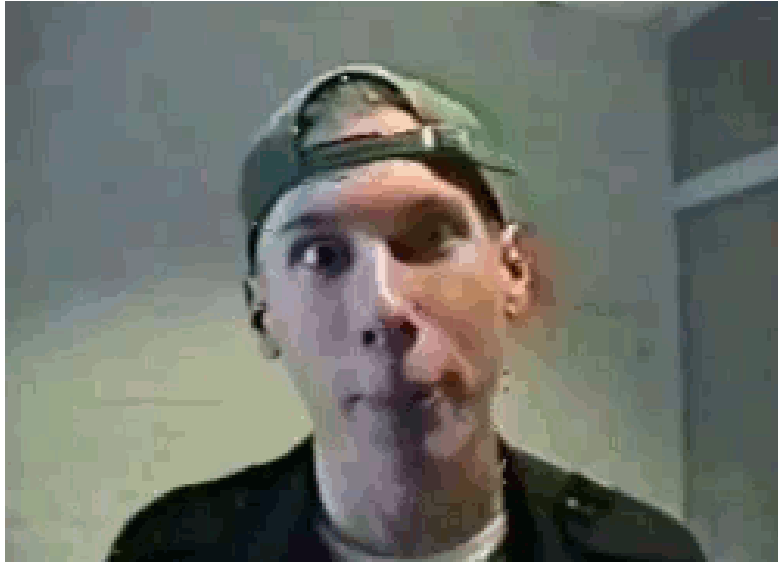

SUN CONJUNCT/PARALLEL PLUTO ~ BEST VILLAIN

(THIS PROJECT GIVES AN 8TH HOUSE SUN IN SAGITTARIUS CONJUNCT PLUTO IN ALL CHARTS)

The Sun conjunct/parallel Pluto is the black Sun shining. The Darth Vader of all Sun aspects, it is high contrast and stark lighting. The brighter the Sun the darker the shadow and that is just what we get here. This red-ice sexuality is quite a paradox. Sun conjunct/parallel Pluto and Sun quincunx Pluto exudes power but doesn't need to make a big song and dance about it. their mere physical presence is enough to ensure obedience and submission. Sun/Pluto's persona is very serious about secrecy and control. The subject's personal life and past may remain a mystery, as they are experts at armor plating their true emotions. They don't let much slip and can be extreme control freaks. They rule over their domain with an iron will and a steel fist. They need to know where everything is at all times and woe betide anyone who rearranges the order of their carefully, alphabetically arranged CD collection. They can be very intimidating and in extreme cases, tyrannical. At times, the father can be experienced this way. It may seem as if there is an ominous, dark cloud looming over & surrounding them.

Sun conjunct/parallel Pluto's eyes bore right into your soul. These eyes can be dark and smoldering or light and piercing. Their sexual magnetism is off the Richter scale, but they have an invisible force field around them that says "Look, don't touch", hence people are often too afraid to approach them. It's no surprise that the tyrannical Emperor Nero has this placement, and at just 08' too. He is known to have executed his mother and step-brother among others.

Sun Conjunct Pluto natives do value their own privacy, but their often dark and mysterious appearance, can make others suspicious. If a crime is committed nearby, they are the first to be suspected. They may even become entangled in shadowy affairs of some sort. Coming in touch with the darker side of life is natural for them. No matter what happens to them, their strong regenerative and recuperative ability will always see them resurrect even stronger than before.

They usually prefer quality not quantity. Sun/Pluto is not about frills or fluff, their effect is like an overexposed photo, where you are the photo. These folk strip you bare and get to your essence. There is no hiding from Sun conjunct, parallel or quincunx Pluto's glare, it is relentless. They can wield great power and influence while also being subject to powerful, hidden forces acting upon their lives. Their strong ambition and drive force them to fully and deeply experience life and everything in it. Due to their full on nature, if they end up resorting to vice, crime, drugs or anything else of the sort - it will take them to the very depths of suffering. However, it will not take too long after a journey to the underworld for their strength and potency to return. Once this very difficult aspect is mastered, the power and magic potential is phenomenal. At some point the natives may indeed have to face some sort of "death". Having survived their crisis they become indestructible and exude the awesome aura of a Phoenix that has been through the flames and come out 10 times stronger.

Scorpio Ascendant In Depth

(My original ASC-- in multiple charts)

With Scorpio on the Ascendant, there's a POWERFUL, OMINOUS.. TERRIFYING FORCE... That's unlike ANYTHING anyone has experienced.. Scorpio on the Ascendant is holy terror. Whether or not they MEAN TO come across this way-- doesn't even matter; they do. And that's a lot to handle if the person carrying that energy doesn't know how to wield this energy.. Because to have Scorpio on the Ascendant requires mental strength and mental intelligence to wield that force or it WILL WIELD YOU... The Scorpio Ascendant person is more than likely not interested in you...Unless there's something very intriguing about you that sparks the attention of the Scorpio Ascendant man or woman, you are invisible to them. But, if they take your fancy and they like you-- wow..there must be something about you..to attract a Scorpio native to you. Because they don't like anybody. . One can only imagine what great qualities you must possess, to capture the attention of a Scorpio.

It doesn't matter whether you like them or not, they will pursue you regardless. Yes, Scorpio is the sign of the stalker... Another major aspect of Scorpio on the Ascendant is their FIERCE, INCREDIBLE INTENSITY-- that will NOT let up. So understand.... That with Scorpio on the Ascendant... You are here: to DESTROY... The ENERGY is DIRECTED towards creating conflict. Yes, this is very warlike. When you have Scorpio on the Ascendant CONFLICT is what you WANT, and CONFLICT is what you will create and is what you are looking for...

And the conflict can be TERRIFYING because the Scorpio Ascendant can DESTROY people with it. And the more conflict, the better for them. Conflict for a Scorpio Ascendant is blood and ectoplasm to a Vampire. They FEED off of conflict and the MORE conflict that is around the Scorpio Ascendant native-- the more they FEED and gain strength off it.

One can only imagine what ARCHO.NS are looking through those eyes of the host individual that has Scorpio on the Ascendant... It could be an energy from another planet, another star system, OTHERWORLDLY. You think I'm kidding?..... You don't know the half of it..... The Scorpion Ascendant doesn't have to be LOUD with his power; He often pulls from his opposite polarity of Taurus; fixed Earth. Fixed poise... Calm.. Demeanor. But be careful.. Don't stir the bull.. Or you'll get a TERROR unlike anything you've ever experienced... So understand that all of this bears a POWERFUL influence on the psyche-- of the person who possesses a Scorpio Ascendant in any of the main charts.

The stereotypical Vampire Trope, is a typical archetype explanation of the Scorpio energy on the Ascendant. Where its only purpose is to FEED off of the MISERY it causes on others. And this seems from the outside looking in to be bitterly, grossly, demonically unfair to the victim going through the experience.. But ahh.. Here's the thing... If you MEET SOMEONE who is a SCORPIO ASCENDANT, you are MEANT to go through a transformative experience with that individual. And your participation WILL NOT BE REQUIRED... It's just gonna happen. The experience is like a black hole pulling EVERYTHING in; you're done..Done...Now.. as a Scorpio Ascendant; as a person CARRYING that energy...You have to make a choice VERY QUICKLY about which side of the poll you're gonna be on. Either good, or evil. Because there's too much power here to allow a compromise, and to assimilate both.. Scorpio Ascendants have to choose ONE or the other. Are you going to be the Serpent 🐍 or the Arrow 🏹 ...

Scorpio rules African music, tribal music, drums 🥁 a TRANCE STATE; a COBRA 🐍 with devilish, intense eyes and fangs. It's INTENSE... Scorpio represents a TIME BOMB 💣 And you have to know.. How to set it off, or push it away from you in another direction; or find a way to LIVE with that energy. Because the energy here is just TOO INTENSE... those with Scorpio on the Ascendant KNOW how to hurt people.. They are very strong-willed and they have a very..powerfully quiet demeanor.. And one doesn't know what's more scary... The quiet intensity of their demeanor.... or the way they never break their stare.... They lock right in, they are mesmerizing: a Scorpio Ascendant never fades in and out, they remain focused.. and it's so relaxed, it's like the devil himself is looking right at you.. A gaze from a Scorpio Ascendant can quite literally send chills down your spine: make you break if you are not strong enough to WITHSTAND that energy...

Godlike Asteroids

(Just because I don't mention old asteroids mentioned in previous projects, doesn't mean I stopped using them; they are constantly being upgraded and modified more and more with every new project; that includes the public's favorites like Walpurga who especially gets a massive amount of brand new upgrades in this project)

THESE ASTEROIDS... ARE CRAZY..... AS..... FUCK.... All of the asteroids named after Mythological Gods seem to carry some sort of omnipotent, supernatural power/strength... This becomes more and more apparent to me the more I research them. You'd be hard pressed to find an extremely powerful person who DOESN'T have some sort of GOD/GODDESS asteroid extremely prominent. Obviously, these are all used heavily in this project. I made them form EXACT conjunctions with your Sun, Moon, Mercury, Mars, Ascendant, Midheaven, and more. I also placed them in multiple signs (Aries, Leo, Scorpio, Capricorn, Aquarius and Gemini) and in multiple houses (almost every single one)

#1: (10209) Izanaki... Izanagi (イザナギ) or Izanaki (イザナキ) is a creator deity (kami) in Japanese mythology. He and his sister-wife Izanami are the last of the seven generations of primordial deities that manifested after the formation of heaven and earth. Izanagi and Izanami are held to be the creators of the Japanese archipelago and the progenitors of many deities, which include the sun goddess Amaterasu, the moon deity Tsukuyomi and the storm god Susanoo. DO NOT FORGET THAT SOME OF THE DEEDS THESE ANCIENT GODS

COMMITTED... Are extremely brutal, crazy, wild, and downright deranged. Natives with strong God dominance should therefore be treated with caution.

The list goes on.

#2: (10604) Susano'o...He is a multifaceted deity/kami with violent characteristics, being portrayed in various stories either as a wild, impetuous god associated with the sea and storms, as a heroic figure who killed an all-powerful, monstrous serpent, (Yamatano Orochi, who has his own asteroid that gets an extreme amount of upgrades in this project) or as a local deity linked with the harvest and agriculture. Susano'o married the girl he saved from the serpent, and together they produced many more generations of gods. One trait that remains the same, however, in all renditions-- is his fondness for destruction. He is the God of Storms; an extremely ill-tempered, belligerent God who once destroyed his Goddess Sister Amaterasu and everything she loved during a violent outburst of rage. He is so destructive that everywhere he walked- he caused intense floods & disastrous storms to absolutely consume wherever he was. The verb susabu or susamu means 'to be impetuous,' 'to be violent,' or 'to go wild'. He is eventually banished by Izanaki for all of his sins. He actually kills another god at one point.

The list goes on. CLEARLY SUSANOO-MARS IS IN A LEAGUE OF ITS OWN...

#3: Tsukiyomi... Tsukiyomi is a cruel, violent deity who frequently breaks laws in order to ensure that they are followed by others; he is the opposite of Amaterasu who represents the Sun, daylight and kindness. Tsukiyomi is the dark, vicious God of night and the Moon. His influence is extremely evil in nature and the Japanese view him as a negative, dark entity. Although they still worship him.

#4: (10227) Izanami...Izanami no mikoto is a creator deity of both creation and death in Japanese mythology. The first gods Kunitokotachi and Amenominakanushi summoned two divine beings into existence, the male Izanagi and the female Izanami, and charged them with creating the first land. While giving birth to a powerful God of Fire, she ended up being burned to death. Her soul was then sent to hell. To cut a long story short, she ended up becoming an extremely SPITEFUL and WRATHFUL Goddess of the Underworld. To the point that she told Izanagi that she would destroy 1,000 residents of the living every day because of his failure to save her. He furiously replied he would give life to 1,500 residents every day. They both kept their promise. Izanami's influence is extremely, incredibly ominous... Take it from me-- I was born with Izanami parallel and conjunct my Ascendant 1° orb.

FOR THE RECORD, ALL THE OLD MONSTERS SUCH AS JUBJUB BIRD, NJORD, ONIZAKI, IZANAMI, GOJIRA, IKU-TURSO, ETC... STILL EXIST HERE IN THIS PROJECT, AND ON AN EVEN MORE POWERFUL LEVEL THAN EVER BEFORE.

Godlike Asteroids (RETURN OF THE BIG 5)

Allow me to introduce you to some monsters I've discovered. After scrolling through over 600,000 asteroids, and doing solid research on most of them-- these are by far the most powerful of them all..... This is sacred knowledge. Anyway, all of the following asteroids are made extremely prominent in all of your charts. All of these asteroids form conjunctions with your Ascendant, Midheaven, Sun, Venus, Moon and Immum Coeli in this project. More on that further in the document.

#5: (101781) Gojira... Gojira is GODZILLA; Godzilla is an enormous, destructive, prehistoric sea monster awakened and empowered by nuclear radiation. With the nuclear bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki and the Lucky Dragon 5 incident still fresh in the Japanese consciousness, Godzilla was conceived as a metaphor for nuclear weapons. Others have suggested that Godzilla is a metaphor for the United States, a giant beast woken from its slumber which then takes terrible vengeance on Japan. This is an asteroid that you only really see appear prominently in the charts of very... very aggressive, violent, destructive people. BIG POWER-TRIP VIBES HERE. Plutonians tend to behave and feel very Tyrannical as well but Gojira's god complex genuinely runs a lot deeper than Pluto's. Gojira/Godzilla himself, frequently fights monsters that are just as monstrous and powerful as he is-- and wins. He is a monster capable of destroying other monsters.

Examples of Godzilla's Power (tight orbs only): Conjunct Willem Da Foe's Midheaven 0° orb AKA exact conjunction. Conjunct Eric Harris' Sun, Mars (exact 0° conj. with his Mars) & Venus. #6: (471926) Jormungandr: In Norse mythology, Jörmungandr (Old Norse: Jormungandr, meaning "huge monster"), also known as the World Serpent (Old Norse: Miðgarðsormr), is a sea serpent, the middle child of the giantess Angrboða and Loki. The serpent grew so large that it was able to surround the earth and grasp its own tail. As a result, it received the name of the Midgard Serpent or World Serpent. When it releases its tail, Ragnarök will begin. Jörmungandr's arch-enemy is the thunder-god, Thor, with the two being prophesied to kill each other come Ragnarök.

#7: (9781) Jubjub Bird: In "Jabberwocky", the only detail given about the bird is that the protagonist should "beware" it. In The Hunting of the Snark, however, the creature is described in much greater depth. It is found in a narrow, dark, depressing and isolated valley. Its voice when heard is described as "a scream, shrill and high" like a pencil squeaking on a slate, and significantly scares those who hear it, including the Beaver, who "turn[s] pale to the tip of its tail" Its character traits include that it is "desperate" and "lives in perpetual passion", it "knows any friend it has met once before" and will not "look at a bribe".

Examples of Jubjub Bird's Power: He appears extremely prominently in the charts of some of the most ruthless beings to walk the earth.

#8: (1946) Walraven (valrav, supernatural creature in Danish folklore)

According to Danish folklore recorded in the late 1800s, when a king or chieftain was killed in battle and not found and buried, ravens came and ate him. The ravens became valravne. The valravne that ate the king's heart gained human knowledge and could perform great malicious acts, could lead people astray, had superhuman powers, and were "terrible animals".[1] In another account, a valrav is described as a peaceless soul in search of redemption that flies by night (but never day) and can only free itself from its animal countenance by consuming the blood of a child.

This is reflected in a Danish traditional song that describes how, after refusing offers of riches, the Valrav makes an agreement with a maiden to take her to her betrothed after she promises the valrav her first born son. After the agreement, the valrav flies away. In time, the couple have a child and the Valrav returns, and asks the maiden if she has forgotten her promise. The valrav takes the child away, and tears into the chest of his won wager and consumes the blood contained within the child's heart. As a result, the valrav transforms into a knight. This traditional song was reinterpreted by the electro-folk band Sorten Muld and became a hit for them in 1997, under the title Ravnen.

"According to Danish folklore recorded in the late 1800s, when a king or chieftain was killed in battle and not found and buried, ravens came and ate him. The ravens became valravne."

(You can already tell Daitarabochi-Moon is powerful as fuck just off those few examples)

The size of a Daidarabotchi was so great that his footprints were said to have created innumerable lakes and ponds. In one legend, a Daidarabotchi weighed Mount Fuji and Mount Tsukuba to see which was heavier, but he accidentally split Tsukuba's peak after he was finished with it.

DO NOT FORGET THAT THIS HAS DAITARABOCHI CONJUNCT AND PARALLEL YOUR SUN, MOON, MERCURY, VENUS, MARS, JUPITER, SATURN, URANUS, PLUTO, ASCENDANT, I.C & MIDHEAVEN... You will become a living, breathing embodiment of it's great power.

3990 Heimdal (god associated with mankind and the World Tree Yggdrasil, has keen eyesight and hearing)

3989 Odin (one-eyed god of knowledge, magic, healing, war, death, poetry, runes etc. Father of Thor, Balder, Höder, Brage, Hermod...)
299 Thora (Thor, god of thunder)
1460 Haltia (spirit creature in Finnish mythology that guards, helps, or protects something or somebody)
2096 Väinö (Väinämöinen, main character of the Kalevala, old and wise man who possessed a potent magical voice)

The next few are from LEVIATHAN but are still used heavily in this project

Andrejka: Mesmerizing or swaying others, being evil or corrupt, the fascination of evil... The man below, Richard Ramirez, has Sun conjunct Andrejka 0 degrees... Exact conjunction. You can clearly see Andrejka's energy radiating off of Ramirez in the GIF below.

Walpurga: Although not all Witches, Wiccans or witchcraft are evil, nor even most, of course, the asteroid Walpurga does seem to get its astrological significance from the old superstitious dark view of witches, evil, terrifying, corrupt people and things; monsters, bogeymen, bête noires, things and people that are anathematized... Robert Englund, who played the extremely hard to kill murderer Freddie Kureger in several movies, has Walpurga tightly conjunct his Mercury. (I was also born with that)

1999 DE9: Energy, destructiveness, power, evil, repudiation, conspiracy, pivotal events, milestones, danger, and empowerment... Dylan Klebold, a murderer, had 1999 DE9 conjunct his Midheaven.

1996 SZ4: The use of force, predators, dealing with force, power or bullies, developing inner strength... Two notoriously violent executioners, Richard Ramirez & Edmund Kemper both had 1996 SZ4 conjunct their Mars tightly..

Attila: Aggression(Henk Middleraad), or active dominance, the urge to fight (J.Lee Lehman)... This is one of the most warlike asteroids out of the thousands of them... Having this powerhouse prominent will make you capable of easily destroying the most vicious of rivals.

Tyrannosaurus: Formidable, menacing, voracious, predatory, dangerous.... You'd be hard pressed to find an extremely powerful person who doesn't have a prominent Tyrannosaurus. Many of you loved having Tyrannosaurus-Midheaven from Black Ring; just imagine how much more powerful you will become now due to gaining Tyrannosaurus/Sun, Tyran/Moon, Tyran/Mercury, etc...

Transneptunian Planet Vulcanus: Vulcanus within a chart represents a very masculine energy, great strength, brute force, vitality and good recuperative powers, it's the athlete with the powerful physique. Yet when it's manifesting negatively, Vulcanus is capable of brutality and violence. Vulcanus is represented by a triangle with an arrow shooting upward resembling a volcanic explosion alluding to massive energy potential.

... ANYTIME YOU SEE A TRANSNEPTUNIAN PLANET APPEAR... JUST KNOW THERE IS SOME SERIOUS FUCKING POWER GOING ON.... Seriously... Just one parallel from Vulcanus to one of your main planets would be enough to make you feel like a god...Donald Trump has TNS Vulcanus conjunct his Midheaven & Transneptunian Planet Zeus conjunct his Ascendant... go figure.

Pan: Pan is a satyr, the lord of spring & fertility; he's got a thing for nymphs. Mythologically, he was said to be a genius at sex as well as being the God of all wild creatures. Pan shows great lust, great confidence/audacity, absolute lack of shyness/timidity; he is the alcoholic constantly throwing huge parties, indulging in life's pleasures, joining grand orgies without hesitation... Simply put, he is the alpha male. And he is completely uninhibited.. Those with Pan prominent, and especially those with Pan on the Ascendant-- are so wild that they often accidentally intimidate those around them.

Mars: Anger, bloodshed, war, sex, aggression, violence, masculinity, behavior, actions, fighting ability... ... Mars is so important that it is frequently agreed upon by most astrologers that in order to even have the slightest chance at real success in life-- it is absolutely necessary to have at least one aspect from Mars to the Sun. Because, without a Sun/Mars aspect-- the native will never have the desire, drive, aggression & intensity needed to thrive in this world. End of story. God help them if they end up in a fight with a Mars/Sun native.

Sun in Aries/Scorpio natives & Mars in Leo natives automatically have Mars/Sun energy so if they have a Sun/Mars aspect as well; this means they now have double dose 2x Mars/Sun energy... Making them overwhelmingly formidable in this game of life. Mars' energy is so powerful that if someone has a single dose of Mars/Moon energy-- they immediately gain immense fearlessness.

Pluto: Death, sex, intensity, obsession, black magic, voodoo, darkness, the shadow, the capacity for evil, ruthlessness, criminals, immense depth/complexity, the underground, the underworld, power...... A Pluto/Sun person is just about the only other planet/Sun person powerful enough to take on a Mars/Sun and win. Pluto/Sun people exude power, they all have a powerful presence regardless of what else is going on in the chart.

At least one person is always obsessed with you. An obsession with your own appearance. Your physical presence deeply influences people.

Lilith/Ascendant Upgrades

(ALL Liliths parallel Ascendant & Anti Vertex + Black Moon Lilith parallel All Main Planets & Angles)

When Lilith is located in the 1st house of a natal chart, she is strongly connected to one's physical self, both the body and the mind. In case that she is conjuncting the Ascendant, the native will be oozing of dark sexuality, becoming an object of desire for other people. Lilith in the first house can give a very attractive body, and especially in a woman's chart can make her so attractive that other people can become obsessed with her figure. Also, Lilith being placed here may indicate a very corrupt father figure. He can be of a violent nature, and the chart owner will frequently reproduce patterns of violent explosions in his/her own life. In addition, the presence of Black Moon Lilith in the first house can give a tendency to wear black and morbid clothes, and generally have a rather dark and alternative style. The traits are quite common as having Pluto in the house, yet Lilith brings a less serious approach to clothing – the individual desires to look extraordinary and differ from the rest of the community.

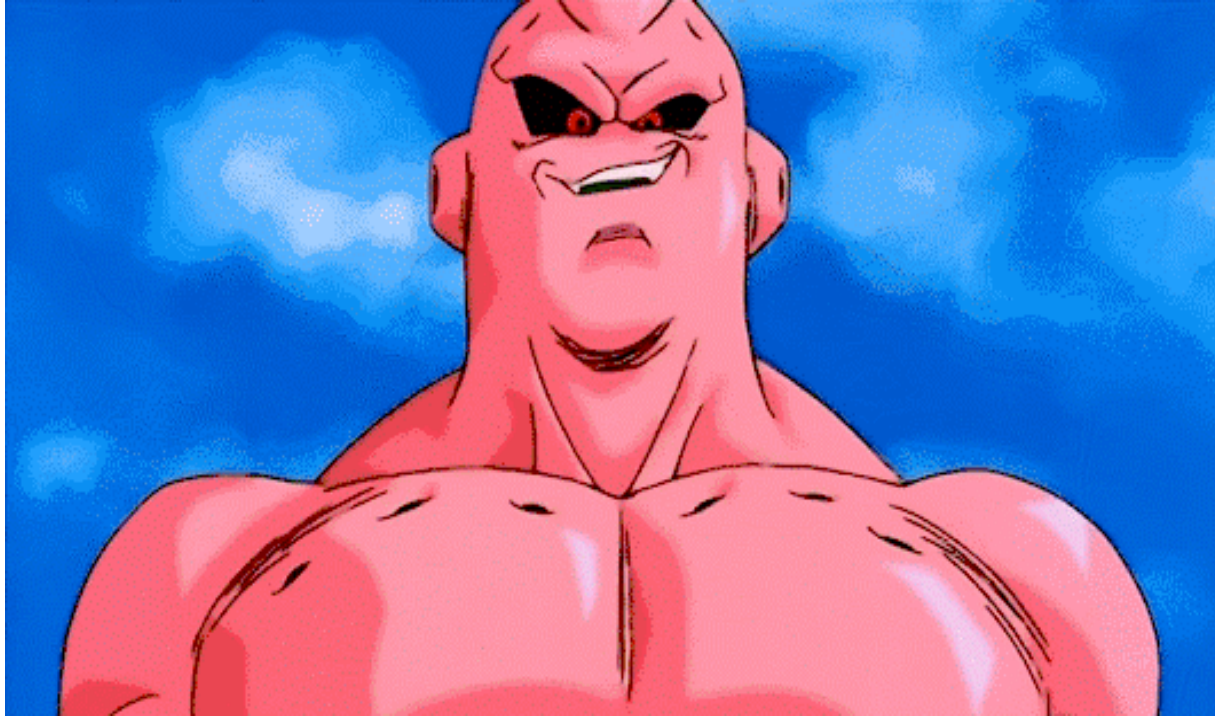

Also, taboo themes such as death and sex will be used as art and style to provoke the masses. A first house Lilith person will easily wear skulls, crosses, pentacles and everything else that will make him pass as dark in the other people's minds. Moreover, Lilith in the first house can also give a rather provocative character. The person who has this placement can have tendencies of being spiteful/malicious, indulge in mind games and manipulations and even receive pleasure from confrontations with other people. Having enemies may be a source of personal power, and they do not seem to be discouraged when not being liked by others. In fact, this helps them create an even more strong and eccentric persona, frequently making their appearance and behavior be gossiped by society. They take pride when other people notice them and discuss them, even if it is in a negative way.

As the 1st house is associated with the native's body and how he treats it, Lilith will spawn her magic in the native's everyday reality through quite a lot of means. Sex and drugs can frequently appear in the native's life, especially if Lilith makes aspects with important planets. Good aspects can even show a very responsible use of these power sources, turning the native into a very spiritual being – even if he follows darker roads towards higher consciousness. On the other hand, taming Lilith's dark powers can grant the native a fruitful life full of sexuality.

while also a mind that can connect to deeper realms and understand the functions of hypnotism. In any case, the native can seduce others easily even if he does not understand the mechanism behind such phenomena

Hold yourself away from self-destruction, even if it may appear as a vice that you enjoy. Know that you are easily noticed by others, your energy cannot just pass unnoticed; thus, there is no real need of over-exaggerating in your appearance and behavior. And finally, try to keep away from trouble. In case your life indeed has quite a lot, you will understand that most of the time, it was your choice to get into trouble.

Jupiter in Scorpio Upgrades

(JUPITER IN SCORPIO PARALLEL ALL MARS, PLUTO, ASCENDANT, MIDHEAVEN & IMMUM COELI PLACEMENTS)

Jupiter in Scorpio can clearly see what is hidden. They have the uncanny ability to read between the lines and understand the reality of a situation. This can be turned to their advantage and help them succeed. They can handle intense energy and turn it into a healing rather than a destructive force. Jupiter in Scorpio can be very secretive and serious. They have a critical sense of judgment and a shrewd business sense. They have a tremendous sense of faith in themselves and if unchecked, can exercise their will over others. They are farsighted & determined to succeed. Jupiter in Scorpio has a certain degree of social power. They can be very clever, crafty and devious. They may secretly wish to control others or accumulate power.

Those with Jupiter in Scorpio are creatures of mystery. They are very comfortable with their own darkness and spend much of their time pondering the shapes of their own shadows. Secrecy and obscurity are the centerpieces of their existence. They are the allies of the monsters that lurk in the darkness, hide in the closets and beneath the beds. The monsters are their friends and they are genuinely perplexed and dismayed by the inability of the general population to appreciate and get comfortable with their own demons.

They understand that the dark elements are as natural as the light and spend their lives trying to show people the freedom in the acceptance of this truth. They get a primal satisfaction out of antagonizing those they feel are more fearful of their own ugliness, inhibited by convention. They can sense what turns people on - their most hidden desires. They can even psychically zone in on someone's insecurities and anxieties. Then, they will wickedly flirt with exposing all of your hidden compulsions and will confront you with your biggest fears.

These types of people can genuinely scare the shit out of you. They are the masters of creepiness and horror. They love being the ambassadors to the dark side and will take any opportunity to parade their close and comfortable relationship with the demons underneath. Their endeavors are not driven by a desire to be liked or to be accepted, but by a desire to be truthful and honest; to represent themselves fully, completely, and honestly; to be seen for the beautifully unique creature that they are - warts and all. Jupiter in Scorpio natives understand the value of secrecy and respect it highly. They can be very private and have many secrets that they never share.

These natives often have a lot of sex appeal. And it should be no problem for these natives to “get lucky”. Even if they are not classically or commercially attractive, they can become sexual icons because of their raw sexual magnetism. They usually love to flaunt their sexuality and to break any societal sexual taboos. They are immensely powerful people, and it wouldn’t be unwise to keep a healthy fear of them. Their boundaries are much wider than the average person and range much deeper into the nether regions of existence. Sometimes their vision gets obscured by all the darkness and they get a little too comfortable in the underworld. They can be very destructive to themselves and others when they are unable to separate themselves from hell. They often get involved in wicked or destructive activities.
