

The Vocation of Teaching in Krishna Consciousness

Part I: Definition—Who are We and What is Our Role?

Worksheet

What is teaching? (these nine are from Louis Rath, Teaching for Learning)

- Informing and explaining
- Showing how
- Supplementing existing curriculum
- Encourage students to think and share their thinking
- Guide the development of values
- Relate learning, school, and community
- Provide an atmosphere of mutual respect and emotional security
- Diagnose and remedy academic difficulties
- Evaluate, record, and report matters that pertain to their teaching

What should a teacher do?

- Take responsibility for students' learning
- Facilitate the students' retention
- Facilitate the students' use of what is learned
- Motivate and enthuse students to learn
- Be a model of an enthused learner
- Be a model of whatever one is teaching the students to be
- Make teaching relevant to the students' lives
- Teach how to learn
- Teach how to think
- Know and care about each student on a personal level

Add to this from the list we generated in the seminar: