

S10 - Trailer

Kathryn: Welcome to season 10 of Digital Learning Radio. I'm Kathryn Laster.

Laura: and I'm Laura Kile, and we cannot wait to begin this new season of the podcast where we'll be sharing what's inspiring us to learn.

Kathryn: In each episode this season, we will alternate sharing something that is inspiring us, whether it's an instructional strategy, a book, a podcast, or even a tweet. We will spend time reflecting and discussing the ideas, and we'll work to connect the conversations to professional learning and to classrooms.

Laura: This past year, we've done a lot of learning, so now we're focusing on intentionally sharing. We hope that when we share, the conversation and ideas will cultivate curiosity, and inspire you, dear listener, to click on a link, explore one of the resources, reflect on a question we've asked, or continue the conversation with us online.

Kathryn: As we prepare for the season, we want to know what has recently inspired you to learn?

Laura: And as ever, we are inspired to learn from Gayle Allen and her work in The New Pillars of Modern Teaching. She reminds us that when we share, "we add a sentence to the story we communicate about ourselves to the world."

Kathryn: This season we are so looking forward to exploring the ongoing stories of our learning and sharing our inspiration as we grow. Join us Thursdays, beginning September 16th, to listen in to our new season "Inspired to Learn."
