

Code of Conduct

Based on the OpenEd Conference Code of Conduct and the Citizen Code of Conduct.

1. Purpose

A primary goal of the Desmos Fellowship is to be inclusive to the largest number of contributors, with the most varied and diverse backgrounds possible. As such, we are committed to providing a friendly, safe and welcoming environment for all, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, ability, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, and religion (or lack thereof).

This code of conduct outlines our expectations for all those who participate in the Desmos Fellowship, as well as the consequences for unacceptable behavior.

We invite all those who participate in the Desmos Fellowship to help us create safe and positive experiences for everyone.

2. Desmos Fellowship Citizenship

A supplemental goal of this Code of Conduct is to increase citizenship in the Desmos Fellowship community by encouraging participants to recognize and strengthen the relationships between our actions and their effects on our community.

Communities mirror the societies in which they exist and positive action is essential to counteract the many forms of inequality and abuses of power that exist in society.

If you see someone who is making an extra effort to ensure our community is welcoming, friendly, and encourages all participants to contribute to the fullest extent, we want to know.

3. Expected Behavior

- Participate in an authentic and active way. In doing so, you contribute to the health and longevity of this community.
- Exercise consideration and respect in your speech and actions.
- Attempt collaboration before conflict.
- Refrain from demeaning, discriminatory, or harassing behavior and speech.
- Be mindful of your surroundings and of your fellow participants. Alert Shelley Carranza (shelley@desmos.com) or Dan Meyer (dan@desmos.com) if you notice a dangerous situation, someone in distress, or violations of this Code of Conduct, even if they seem inconsequential.

4. Unacceptable Behavior

Unacceptable behaviors include: intimidating, harassing, abusive, discriminatory, derogatory or demeaning speech or actions by any participant in our community online, at all related events and in one-on-one communications carried out in the context of community business.

Desmos Fellowship event venues may be shared with members of the public; please be respectful to all patrons of these locations.

Harassment includes: harmful or prejudicial verbal or written comments related to gender, sexual orientation, race, religion, disability; inappropriate use of nudity and/or sexual images in public spaces (including presentation slides); deliberate intimidation, stalking or following; harassing photography or recording; sustained disruption of talks or other events; inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention.

5. Consequences of Unacceptable Behavior

Unacceptable behavior from any Desmos Fellowship participant, including those with decision-making authority, will not be tolerated.

Anyone asked to stop unacceptable behavior is expected to comply immediately.

If a Desmos Fellowship participant engages in unacceptable behavior, Desmos may take any action they deem appropriate, up to and including a temporary ban or permanent expulsion from the fellowship without warning (and without refund in the case of a paid event).

6. If You Witness or Are Subject to Unacceptable Behavior

If you are subject to or witness unacceptable behavior, or have any other concerns, please notify Shelley Carranza (shelley@desmos.com) or Dan Meyer (dan@desmos.com) as soon as possible. We will work with the participant engaging in the unacceptable behavior to either correct the situation or end their participation in the community.

Additionally, Desmos staff are available to help participants engage with local law enforcement or to otherwise help those experiencing unacceptable behavior feel safe. In the context of in-person events, organizers will also provide escorts as desired by the person experiencing distress.

7. Addressing Grievances

If you feel you have been falsely or unfairly accused of violating this Code of Conduct, you should notify community organizers with a concise description of your grievance.

8. Scope

We expect all community participants (contributors, paid or otherwise; sponsors; and other guests) to abide by this Code of Conduct in all community venues—online and in-person—as well as in all one-on-one communications pertaining to community business.

9. Contact info

Shelley Carranza

shelley@desmos.com

628-249-1982

10. License and attribution

This Code of Conduct is distributed under a Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike license, forked from <http://citizencodeofconduct.org/> by Audrey Watters and David Wiley, and forked from there by Shelley Carranza.